A Review of ABC's 90th Season

TEAM USA. Local Association Officers Training Conferences. Mary Lou Retton.

Those were just three examples of new projects announced by the American Bowling Congress during the 1984-85 season in support of an industry-wide effort to turn around a slide of membership and dollar figures which has occurred during the 1980s.

The ABC season included a successful 82nd ABC Tournament in Tulsa, Okla., which drew the fourth largest number of entries in history, 7,700, and the 94th Convention of Delegates in the Tulsa Convention Center, where 1,271 delegates acted upon 37 amendments and six resolutions in timely order.

The 35th ABC Masters Tournament by Columbia 300 saw Steve Wunderlich of St. Louis record his first major victory as a professional and a strong bid by defending champion Earl Anthony of Dublin, Calif., who made his only tournament appearance of the year and placed sixth. The Minnesota Loons of St. Paul tied an ABC Tournament record by defending their team all events championship during the event's 107 day run.

TEAM USA, sponsored by the ABC and the Women's International Bowling Congress, became the new method for determining United States qualifiers for international competition, replacing the U.S. Team Trials. Competition began on the local level during the 1985-86 season, culminating with the national finals to select TEAM USA in August 1986. TEAM USA members would represent this country in Federation Internationale des Quilleurs tournaments, plus other international events such as the Pan American Games and Tournament of the Americas.

The Local Association Officers Training Conferences (LAOTC) were developed by the ABC Education Committee and Department. The training sessions are broken into three categories by local association size, with officers from the nation's largest associations brought to Bowling Headquarters in Milwaukee for training and interchange of ideas. The ultimate goal is creating more motivation for association officials which will filter down to better service offered to all ABC members.

Mary Lou Retton's involvement with bowling actually was announced during the Bowling Proprietors Association of America Convention in July. The 1984 Olympic gymnastics gold medalist will serve as an official spokesperson for bowling under a marketing and promotional plan devised by the National Bowling Council and the BPAA. The ABC is one of the major contributors as a member of NBC. Retton will be featured in radio, television and print advertisements and make personal appearances on behalf of the bowling industry.

Tulsa will always hold a special place in the hearts of Steve and Cindy Wunderlich after Steve took home his biggest prize check ever by winning the 1985 ABC Masters.

The number of amendments considered by the Convention delegates was one of the largest of all-time, but the legislative session was completed in less than two hours.

Prior to the legislative proceedings, the delegates heard from ABC Assistant Executive Secretary Burt Kellermann, who reported on four ongoing Equipment Specifications Department testing projects which make up an overall "systems of bowling" study. Included in the testing is the lane measuring dressing device, which remains on course for availability to local associations at the start of the 1986-87 season.

ABC Vice President Max Skelton, Chairman of the Finance and Budget Committee, alerted delegates to a dues increase proposal which would be presented at the 1986 Convention in Las Vegas.

ABC membership figures declined for the fifth consecutive season. Figures for individual members were determined for the second year since all local associations completed conversion from the team membership plan for the 1983-84 season. The figures for members dropped to 3,656,928 in 1984-85 from 3,791,081 in 1983-84, a 3.5% reduction. The playing strength figure, used for many years to determine ABC's membership, also fell from 4,453,782 to 4,295,841.

The number of local associations grew by 97 to 2,874, while the figure for leagues dropped 6,351 to 133,883 and number of teams fell 73,022 to 1,480,255.

The WIBC shared ABC's membership decline, falling by 152,967 from 3,866,718 to 3,713,751. YABA membership also dropped to 693,153 from 744,244, a loss of 51,091, while the Collegiate Division numbers fell by 1,677 from 13,468 to 11,791.

Comparison of membership figures by states and local associations takes on a new dimension with the passage of an amendment during the 1985 Convention which changes delegate representation from playing strength figures to actual members for the '86 Convention. Because Convention delegates continued to be determined by playing strength in '85, the ABC Annual Report continued to rank states and local associations by that figure. That changes to the members figure with this volume.

Thus, New York takes over first place from California in the state rankings with 315,734. Michigan, Ohio, California and Illinois round out the top five. However, using playing strength figures (the method for last year's listings), California still ranks first and there are no changes among the top nine. Indiana replaces New Jersey in 10th place, both by members and playing strength. All states in the top 10 experienced a decline in members.

No matter whether members or playing strength figures were used for local associations, the top three continued to be Detroit, Chicago and Eastern Long Island. Detroit's membership stood at 117,849, while Chicago's figure was 79,540 and Eastern Long Island's was 45,450.

Taking the placing by membership for 1984-85 as compared to placing by playing strength in '83-84, Cleveland, Milwaukee and Buffalo moved up among the top 10. New representatives among the top 25 were Phoenix and Bergen County, N.J. The only local associations among the top 25 to show an increase in members were Phoenix and Citrus Belt, Calif.

The number of certified establishments and lane beds showed a slight decrease from 1983-84. The figures of 8,629 establishments and 159,394 lane beds represented respective drops of 91 and 483 from the previous season. However, the average number of lanes in an ABC certified establishment continued to rise, moving from 18.33 lanes

The number of suspensions handed out by the ABC Legal Committee dropped a year ago, but the figure increased again for the 1984-85 season. Indefinite and one year suspensions were given to 1,716 bowlers, and another 130 members received a suspension held in abeyance. The committee reinstated 134 bowlers and denied 16 reinstatements. Amnesty was granted to 238, and 108 cases either had no action taken or were dismissed.

Nearly 40,000 bowlers competed for a prize fund of more than $1.5 million in the 1985 ABC Tournament. The Loons became the third team to defend their team all events crown, although they had to share the honor at 9343 with Pony Express Lanes of St. Joseph, Mo.

Former Professional Bowlers Assn. standout Barry Asher of Anaheim, Calif., won all events with 2033. Glen Harbison of Pittsburgh, a 22 year old bowling in his first ABC Tournament, captured the singles title with 774.

Terry's Pro Shop of Cleveland posted a big score of 3233 early in the Tournament and wrapped up the Regular Division team title when no one else was able to come within 100 pins of that total. Team captain Larry Domzalski led the way with a 692 series, followed by Jim Pencak 678, Mike Greenwald 653, Curtis Childress 615 and Nick DiBlatto 595.

Howard Higby and Clyde Gibson of Lake Jackson, Texas, also had to endure a long wait before their doubles score of 1366 held up for the championship. Higby rolled 718 and Gibson 648. The Booster team title was won by Dr. Baur's No. 6 of Milwaukee with 2802.

The "professional victory monkey" was removed from Wunderlich's back as he swept past the Masters field unbeaten. Wunderlich, the top qualifier for the stepladder finals, whipped Tommy Kress of Rochester, N.Y., 256-171 to secure the $40,600 first prize.

The Masters finals began with Pete Weber of St. Louis beating Dennis Jacques of Middletown, N.J., 207-188, but Kress then ousted Weber 215-212. Kress entered the title match by defeating Gary Bower of Middletown, Pa., 224-204.

A successful National Seniors tournament for ABC and WIBC state champions concluded Masters Week. The ABC Seniors champions were: A Division (70-over), Ted Geiser, Louisville, Ky.; B (65-69), John Eskra, Denver; C (60-64), Art Prather, Natchez, Miss.; D (55-59), Tony Quaranto, Niagara Falls, N.Y. Another feature of Masters Week was the Association of College Unions-International championships, and Scott Thomsen of Washington State won the all events title with Mike Sander of Nebraska second and defending champion Jack Jurek of West Texas State third.

However, on the international scene, it was a big year for Jurek, who hails from Buffalo. He won the AMF World Cup in October 1984 in Sydney, Australia, and came back in July 1985 to gain one of the six berths during the U.S. Team Trials in Milwaukee. The Trials determined the bowlers who would represent the U.S. in the FIQ American Zone in September in Bogota, Colombia. Also making the team were scoring leader Jeff Richgels of Madison, Wis., Asher, Dan Nadeau of Las Vegas, Nev., Scott Thomsen of Pullman, Wash., and Todd Savoy of Superior, Wis. Asher later withdrew from the team and was replaced by alternate Larry Jones of Louisville.

It also was a big year for Rod Toft of St. Paul, captain of the Loons. He earned the right to represent the U.S. in the Tournament of the Americas in Miami by placing second in the 1984 ABC Tournament all events, and he was part of two winning teams and placed second in doubles. Toft also was the ABC selection to enter the Sportsman of the Year competition conducted by the United States Olympic Committee, a new honor which came about in 1984 when the ABC and WIBC were recognized as USOC members.

The Olympic dream for bowling remained alive with the possibility of being conducted on an exhibition basis during the 1988 Olympics in Seoul, South Korea, although the hopes for demonstration status did not materialize.

Added to the ABC Hall of Fame during induction ceremonies at the annual Convention were Billy Hardwick, Dave Soutar, Alfie Cohn, Eddie Elias and Morehead Patterson. Two of the more famous Hall of Famers passed away during 1984-85 — Bill Doehrman, with his record 71 ABC Tournament appearances, and Andy Varipapa.

Both honor score awards and the total number of ABC awards increased in 1984-85. ABC issued 198,454 awards in 15 categories, an increase of 9,886 from the 188,568 presented in 1983-84. The number of 300 game awards rose to 6,978 from 6,447, while 299 awards went from 3,092 to 3,367 and 298 awards from 1,587 to 1,695. 800 series also showed an increase from 1,234 to 1,359. Awards for 700 series dropped from 55,560 to 54,873.

The annual ABC Service Awards were presented to 10 local associations during the closing Workshop session of the Convention. They went to Whatcom County, Wash.; Sioux City, Iowa; Wayne-Westland, Mich.; Ft. Worth, Austin and Lubbock, Texas; Southwest Florida; Siler-Rand, N.C.; Colorado Springs, and Central Connecticut. In addition, 22 local associations were presented the Five Year Service Award, a new honor marking continued service progress among associations who first were presented the Service Award in 1980.

Convention activities included the presentation of the sixth annual Chuck Hall Star of Tomorrow award to 18 year old Justin Hromek of Andover, Kan. The award, honoring Hromek as the top junior bowler in the country, was presented by Hall, who retired as YABA Executive Director on Aug. 1, 1985.

Convention representation changed from playing strength to actual members

Although they had to consider the largest number of amendments in many years, the 1,271 delegates to the 94th American Bowling Congress Convention got down to work quickly and made their decisions in less than two hours.

There were 37 amendments and six resolutions presented for consideration at the annual delegates meeting March 15 in the Tulsa Convention Center. The final tally showed 24 amendments approved, eight rejected, three deferred to 1986 and two withdrawn. The six resolutions were approved, along with an amendment to the ABC articles of incorporation.

Future ABC Conventions will be affected by the passage of an amendment which calls for basing the number of delegates to the Convention on actual membership rather than playing strength. This provides for a uniform system since ABC recorded actual membership figures for the first time in the 1983-84 season.

Another amendment which drew discussion, and was approved, mandates the marking on the scoresheet of all pins knocked down, particularly intended to show the actual count on the second ball of a frame.

Two amendments were approved which help clear the way for implementation of the lane dressing measuring device as scheduled in the 1986-87 season. One requires lane dressing to meet ABC specifications, which means inclusion of an additive that's necessary to make the measuring device functional, and the other gives the ABC Board of Directors authority to approve or reject changes which would come about from the current testing of both the device and lane dressings rather than waiting until the 1986 ABC Convention.

Among the amendments rejected were those authorizing the use of colored pins in sanctioned competition, limiting bowlers to one lifetime honor score award and increasing the maximum lane certification inspection fee from $3 to $5.

Paul O. Mohn of Silver Spring, Md., was elected as the 72nd ABC President, and Blase (Ben) Palumbo of Buffalo, N.Y., was elected 10th Vice President. New jurisdictional directors elected for one year terms were: James B. Bovins Jr., Knoxville, Tenn.; Joe Connell Higgins, Arlington, Texas; Jack F. Templin, Kettering, Ohio, and Bruce J. Therminy, Bradford, Pa. Michael J. Williams of Negaunee, Mich., who was appointed a jurisdictional director on Oct. 1, 1984 to fill the unexpired term of ABC Corporate Counsel Gerald Koenig, also was elected for a one year term.

Paul Mohn, the 1985-86 President of the ABC, addressed the Board of Directors at Tulsa.

Condensed Convention Minutes

The 1985 American Bowling Congress Convention of the officers, Board of Directors and delegates was convened at 9 a.m. in the Tulsa Convention Center in Tulsa, Okla. on March 15, 1985.

ABC President William D. DeHaven officially opened the meeting and introduced Richard Hicks, who sang the National Anthem, and the Rev. Edmund Byrnes, who gave the invocation.

Memorial services were narrated by Dick Schmitz, and he was accompanied by buglers Jacques Marrow and Mike Sons from the Tulsa Will Rogers High School band.

A welcoming message was delivered by William Waller, Metropolitan Tulsa Chamber of Commerce Chairman of the Board.

The cooperation which has taken place in the past year between the ABC and the Women's International Bowling Congress was the focal point of remarks by WIBC President Helen Baker. She mentioned the acceptance of WIBC and ABC on the United States Olympic Committee and the continuing efforts to have bowling become a part of more international events. Mrs. Baker noted the establishment of a joint working relationship in the Certification and High Score Processing departments at Bowling Headquarters in suburban Milwaukee, as well as the two organizations helping to conduct Certified Lane Inspector Workshops.

Frank Kietz, President of the Bowling Writers Association of America, said the BWAA was supporting bowling's Olympic drive and also noted some 100 members had been taking part in the BWAA convention held in conjunction with the ABC Convention.

Jamie Brooks, Bowling Proprietors Association of America President, said his organization shared the ABC concern over such industry problems as inflated scores, lane conditioning and exotic bowling balls. He noted the BPAA was conducting tests on short oil finishes and also is concerned with the sanding of balls in regard to destroying the finish on the lanes. Brooks also reported on programs designed to enhance the public image of bowling. One was a gathering of figures to show how many millions of dollars bowlers contribute to charitable causes. Another was a new joint program of placing missing children posters in more than 8,000 bowling centers. Still another was to establish a program in which bowlers would bring food items to a bowling center for distribution to charitable organizations.

The Professional Bowlers Assn. was represented by its Commissioner, Joe Antenora. He noted the cooperation that has existed for many years between the PBA and the ABC. He related the upcoming television plans for the PBA Tour and suggested ABC members call or write local TV stations if they did not televise Pro Bowlers Tour events.

Harry Wells, National Bowling Council President, explained that the NBC portion on the Convention program would be given a little later by Roger Tessman and Paul Mohn, who represent ABC on the NBC.

PRESIDENT DE HAVEN: I think at this time I would like to recognize an organization and especially two members of that organization, and that is the Tulsa Bowling Assn., and we would like at this time to offer our thanks, our appreciation for a great job, not only in seeing that the Tournament and Convention was brought to Tulsa, but for working with us so diligently throughout the Tournament and also in the preparation of this Convention. Special thanks to the President of the Tulsa B.A., Jack LaRue, and the Secretary, Wes Thompson.

At this time I would like to announce both the Ballot and the Conference Committees. The Ballot Committee will consist of Norval Zigler of Columbus, Ohio as chairman, John Beckner of Albany, Ore. and Odell Hickman of Dallas, Texas.

The Conference Committee will consist of Don Rohman of St. Louis; Donald Roberts of Somerset-Hunterdon, N.J.; Mike Goodwin of Seattle; Boyd Pexton, ABC Legal Committee chairman; Ed Sweeney, ABC Rules Committee chairman, and Joseph Dahl, ABC Legislative Study Committee chairman.

We will now have the roll call by the ABC Executive Secretary-Treasurer, Roger Tessman.

ROGER TESSMAN: We have 1,195 delegates registered. This constitutes a quorum. And because of the registration process which is all recorded, it will not be necessary that we have a roll call which is very, very time consuming. We have a quorum present to transact business.

PRESIDENT DE HAVEN: Next is the reading of the minutes and the chair would recognize Ken Namba of Portland, Ore. at microphone No. 5.

NAMBA: Mr. Chairman, I would like to move that we accept the minutes as they are printed in the program.

PRESIDENT DE HAVEN: The chair would recognize William Cook of Minneapolis.

COOK: Mr. President, I second the motion.

PRESIDENT DE HAVEN: You have heard the motion to dispense with the reading of the minutes as they are published in the annual report for all to see.

All those in favor, signify by saying aye. Those opposed say nay. By your action you have dispensed with the reading of the minutes.

The next item on the agenda is the President's report, and I'm pleased to present it to you at this time.

Gentlemen, it has been my pleasure to serve as your President during one of the most significant years in the long history of the American Bowling Congress and our great sport of bowling. Many of the actions which made the year so significant are explained in the report of the respective committees, and I urge you to read and digest the information contained therein.

There were, however, significant events that took place during the year. The first was the granting of a Group C membership for the sport of bowling by the United States Olympic Committee. This membership provides a seat on the house of delegates of the USOC, a seat which is shared jointly by the ABC and the WIBC.

Your action in adopting the necessary amendments to the ABC Constitution at the delegates meeting in Reno last year was most important in the quest for this USOC membership, and I congratulate you for same.

Our goal now is to be a demonstration sport in the 1988 Olympics in Seoul, Korea. And an application has been presented to the Korean Organizing Committee. Our plans for the conduction of a national amateur tournament have been released to all local associations and from these tournaments will come our international team, our TEAM USA.

The second significant event was the opening of the National Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum on June 2, 1984 in St. Louis. This is a truly magnificent shrine to bowling where one can trace the history of our sport from its beginning in ancient times to our present 20th Century status.

When I spoke to you last year at the President's Dinner, I noted that two of my objectives were to improve the image of bowling and ABC and to inform our members of the services provided so they could sell the value of ABC membership to those bowlers who presently are not members.

The granting of a USOC membership along with the opening of the National Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum certainly has contributed to the enhancement of the image of the sport and ABC, and the new programs developed by the Education Committee are directed for local association operations and membership education.

It has been my privilege as your President to attend all ABC committee meetings conducted during the year, and this exposure has made me acutely aware of the tremendous contribution your board members make to the Congress in directing the affairs of the associations. They contribute their expertise, their time and their service, all in the interest of the organization and its members. And, gentlemen, I salute you.

I have also traveled throughout most of the United States and have visited with many local association leaders during the past 12 months. I am convinced the ABC, through its officers and directors, its administrative staff and local association leadership, is poised and ready to meet the challenges of the 1985-86 season and beyond. Our challenges include the restoring of integrity to scoring, reversing the membership decline, member education and the inclusion of bowling in the Olympic Games.

The past year has been the most memorable of my life, and I thank you for affording me the opportunity to serve. Helping to make the year memorable have been the guidance provided by Past President H. Wesley Bogle, the support of First Vice President Paul Mohn, and certainly the cooperation of Executive Secretary-Treasurer Roger Tessman, Assistant Secretary-Treasurer Burt Kellermann and the personnel of their staff.

My term of office expires shortly. However, my support of the Congress continues and I stand ready and willing to serve in any manner desired.

In the interest of saving time, no vote to accept the various reports will be taken until all reports have been presented.

At this time I would like to call on Roger Tessman, the Executive Secretary-Treasurer.

TESSMAN: Good morning, gentlemen. It's great to see so many of you here, and as we all know, this is the highlight of our year. Certainly an especially important highlight for Burt Kellermann, the Assistant Secretary, and myself because it gives us the opportunity to thank you and your 35,000 counterparts around the United States for your efforts in behalf of bowling. You do a great deal. You do it efficiently. You do it professionally, and we really do appreciate it.

It's also an opportunity for us to say thank you to the officers and directors of the Congress. Certainly last, but not least, to say thank you to the staff.

While this is a sport organization, gentlemen, it's more like a fraternal organization. We make friends. We enjoy those friendships. We have the opportunity to associate with you folks at the jamborees and at sessions like this, and that is what makes this work enjoyable and what makes it worthwhile, and a serious thank you to each and every one of you. Please take that thank you back to those of your membership that could not be here. Without you, it would not get done.

We're changing the program just a bit this year through some work done by the Convention Activities Committee. As you recall, in the past, Burt has summarized the committee reports. This has taken some time and we have read our report in part and this has taken some time. The committee felt that there are some things that deserve special attention, and so some definitive presentations are prepared for today which we are very confident will give you a lot of additional information to take back home.

Some three years ago we said to all of you that we were going to evaluate the system of bowling. One of the reports will give you an update on that. At that same time we said that we were going to take our procedures to independent agencies for validation. You will receive a report on that. These are ongoing and these are important because from these discoveries and from this learning process, we will be able to further improve all those things that we have now.

We must also say, gentlemen, that we would certainly urge, since we will not be summarizing the reports, that you please read them, that you share them with your folks back home. The committees work long and hard, and what's in those reports is merely summarization of what they have done this past 12 months. Thousands upon thousands of hours of work, so please share the information with your folks because when people have the knowledge, they have the ability to answer some of the questions.

It's been a busy year. In some instances it's been a difficult year, but from difficulty you can bring success, and certainly it has been an interesting year. There is now, I believe, a very strong awareness on the part of all members of the bowling family that we must pull together and work together and understand one another to turn around the decline we have seen in our membership rolls. We urge, therefore, that you work productively with the local association leaders in your community and the proprietor ranks and the women's ranks and certainly in the youth ranks. We know for a fact, where there are bowling councils, where there is dialog, that the community operates effectively and that bowling benefits from the efforts of those individuals.

We are confronted now with a new challenge, that is the Olympic movement. The challenge is the fact that not only in our business community, but in the bowling community, we now live in a world society. There are now 71 member nations in the Federation Internationale des Quilleurs. There are 79 known nations worldwide that have bowling, and there are 100,000,000 people that bowl around the world. Those are some very impressive numbers. We hope that they make impact on the Pan-Am game representation, on the Sports Festival representation, and certainly on the organizing committee in Seoul, Korea where we hopefully will have an audience with that committee within the next 15 to 20 days.

Directors were honored with plaques for years of service to the ABC Board. Receiving awards (from left) were Ben Palumbo (10 years), Jack Otero (10), George Zeidell (10), Harman Muesing (25), Bob Hollencamp (10), T.J. Van Patten (25), Ray Arnold (25), Ray Arnold (20), Bill Franklin (20) and Ted Melonis (10).

Gentlemen, keep up the good work. We appreciate the time and effort you spend with us. We also appreciate the kind and courteous treatment you extend to our staff. Burt and I thank you again for that and give you our pledge of cooperation in working together.

PRESIDENT DE HAVEN: I would like now to introduce to you the Executive Director of the National Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum, Gerald Baltz.

BALTZ: On June 2, 1984, the ship was launched. The first three months were a shakedown for us and the next six months were devoted to solving the problems that were discovered during those first three months. Today I am very pleased to let you know that the National Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum is indeed shipshape and ready to go.

Reports from our over 20,000 visitors indicate that it is indeed America's most spectacular sports museum, equally enjoyable for young and old and for bowlers and for nonbowlers.

I need to ask two things of each and every delegate present today. First, help us spread the word to increase awareness of this intriguing and exciting attraction. We now have some communication tools that will help you do that, a new brochure and a new slide tape, too, are in the Hall, narrated by Chris Schenkel. The brochure is available near the entrance to the tournament lanes, and the slide tape will be shown at the workshop tomorrow for your review. The brochures, of course, are yours for the asking and I should tell you, the slide tape show soon will be in the hands of each ABC Field Representative and extra copies will be available from the Hall for your use for league meetings, jamborees and association meetings.

A second request has to do, believe it or not, with money. We are becoming a major representative of the sport to the many nonbowlers who are visiting us. In order to represent bowling well, we need your financial assistance. In addition to the contributions, I want to ask you today to help us get the leagues and the individual bowlers in those leagues to participate in our annual Budweiser Hall of Fame tournament. If we could get just 25% of the sanctioned league bowlers participating every year, the Hall's finances would be considerably improved. And by the way, I am happy to announce that the finals of our little tournament, also on May 16, is going to be carried nationally by ESPN, so we look forward to that.

Finally, let me close by telling you that I have spent 15 years in university administration and in bank marketing and planning. I've been in bowling all of nine months. Yet it is already very obvious to me that in this industry, it's filled with talented, dedicated and enthusiastic people. I'm proud to be at the new Hall and to be a member of that bowling family. I look forward to adding my energies and my talents to our efforts to gain for bowling a greater recognition and popularity, and I'm almost certain I'm going to enjoy every minute of it. Thanks for your attention and come visit us in St. Louis.

PRESIDENT DE HAVEN: Those of you who attended the delegates meeting last year in Reno will recall that our Past President, Lowell Rothschild, made a very eloquent plea for funds to support the Frank K. Baker Library in the National Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum. There was a great outpouring of pledges from you delegates in support of the Frank K. Baker Library, and we are happy that the majority of those pledges have been honored. However, about 23, 24% of those pledges have not been honored, and if any of you are here today and are able to honor those pledges, Mr. Rothschild or Vice President Ed Sweeney or Jerry Baltz will be more than happy to accept those pledges.

At the 1981 Convention in Memphis, 29 local associations received their first Service Award for outstanding service. Since that time, by submitting annual applications and maintaining this excellent service, 22 of those associations have earned the Five Year Service Award.

At this time we would like to take a few minutes to honor these fine associations with the ABC Five Year Service Award. I will read the names. If you will come down the steps on either side for the presentation, I will read the names and the presentations will be made by Paul Mohn, our First Vice President.

From San Francisco, Calif. representing the association, President Don Sherer: San Diego, Calif., Secretary John Halferty; Detroit, Mich., President Chuck Larke; Greater Grand Rapids, Mich., First Vice President Jay Coleman; Lebanon (Pa.) District, Life Member William Hammen; Walla Walla Valley, Wash., Secretary Carl Krohn; Albany, Ga., Secretary Al Kosbau; Macon, Ga., Director J. Harold Stokes; Sioux Falls, S.D., Secretary Dean Kuhlmeier; Albany, N.Y., Secretary Joseph Smith; Buffalo, N.Y., Past President Marcel Colliard; Union County, N.J., Secretary Len Spanjersberg; Somerset-Hunterdon, N.J., Secretary Don Roberts; Huntington, W.Va., receiving the award for the association will be ABC Vice President Gene Adams; Greater Terre Haute, Ind., Secretary Herschel Bouillez; Paragould, Ark., Secretary John Urban; Greater Greenville, S.C., Second Vice President Ken Gibson; Memphis, Tenn., President Bryon Gray; Greater Nashville, Tenn., Secretary Jim Rollins; Suncoast, Fla., Secretary Herbert Brown; Greater Richmond, Va., Secretary Robert Kemp; and Greater Omaha, Neb., First Vice President Jerry Wasserman.

Ten associations also earned the Service Award for the 1983-84 season, and these associations will receive their award at tomorrow's Workshop.

The ABC Chuck Hall Star of Tomorrow Award was instituted to annually honor an outstanding young man from the bowling community. Since this is awarded to only one from the thousands who bowl, it's to some degree symbolic, but for the most part it recognizes an individual who stands out among his fellow bowlers. It is, therefore, a rare honor. The considered candidates must display superior bowling ability, good sportsmanship, high scholastic achievement and they ought to have a pleasing personality. The winner, then is truly exceptional. The 1985 Star of Tomorrow certainly fills all of those requirements admirably.

Now I would like to ask Young American Bowling Alliance Executive Director Chuck Hall to escort the honoree to the podium and assist me in presenting this award along with a $1,000 scholarship certificate and to share our great pride and pleasure in introducing the 1985 Chuck Hall Star of Tomorrow, 18-year-old Justin Hromek of Andover, Kan.

HROMEK: First of all, I would like to say I'm really honored to be chosen as the 1985 Chuck Hall Star of Tomorrow. It is really a great honor. This being my last year in youth leagues, it makes it even more special. I would just like to start out by saying thank you to my mom and dad, Fran and Larry Hromek, who are seated right over here.

I also would like to thank Larry and Carol Swafford of Wichita for giving me state and national recognition. That helps a lot in any person's career. And also Clyde Kemmerer and Gordon Vadakin. Those guys put a lot of hours in helping prepare my nomination. And I would like to thank Chuck Hall and the President and also the ABC for honoring me at their national convention.

PRESIDENT DE HAVEN: And at this time I would like to call on Chuck Hall for a few remarks.

HALL: I think again you see a very fine example of our young bowlers. I wonder sometimes what I would have done if I had to stand before a group of men like this and make a speech. I probably would have gotten out only a couple of words. It's amazing the poise of our young people, and I think we contribute greatly to that through what we do.

I'm very honored that these young men have the opportunity to win this award and that the ABC has seen fit to name this award after me. As I said when the award was named after Chuck Hall, it indicates one thing, you are getting old. And as probably many of you know, this will be my last opportunity to stand before this delegation and speak on behalf of the young bowlers of America, as I will retire August 1, and there comes the time for all good people to move aside and let somebody younger and somebody more enthusiastic, maybe, and hopefully somebody that will certainly do the job better than you have done, and in that you can take a great deal of satisfaction.

It has been my pleasure to stand here for many years and speak to you about the second love of my life. I had to say that because my wife is here with me today and she is sitting in the front row. So the second love of my life is young bowlers and the young bowlers' program, the YABA.

I think you are going to hear some things here today during this Convention, during the National Bowling Council's presentation and others that will encourage all of us on behalf of the young bowlers of our country, and the program that the bowling industry sponsors on behalf of the young boys and girls who participate in our game of bowling. You are going to be pleased, you are going to be delighted.

Again, at this moment, as of early March, our membership in YABA is down an additional 60,000 to what it was a year ago. That means that we must certainly do some things that have been alluded to and mentioned this morning.

A number of years ago at your Convention, I used a text that I saw on a church bulletin board in one of the Eastern cities. I want to use it again today. It said, "The height of the church spire is far less important than how high the members of the church aspire." Let me give it to you once more. "The height of the church spire is far less important than how high the members of the church aspire." What does that mean? All we need to do is set our goals. All we need to do is plan our programs. All we need to do is have some aspirations to see youth bowling again growing and flourishing as it did a few years ago. I'm not going to do it. Roger Tessman isn't going to do it, or anybody else, one individual here, but collectively we can do it. As I have said for these many years, I don't think there is one single thing that the bowling industry can't do if we set our mind to it and go to work and show people we are going to do it, and we do it.

I would like to leave something else with you after all these years, that you will certainly continue your aspirations to help boys and girls through a bowling experience. This is the greatest game in the world. As I said at our workshop yesterday, the greatest game in the world to teach kids. It's one of the few things that we teach kids today when they have to stand up on their own feet and do their own thing without somebody helping them, somebody throwing the ball to them or something else. It's the greatest game in the world to teach young people.

Bowlers attending the ABC Seminars during Convention week were able to get some hands-on experience with the new lane dressing measuring device.

We see all the things we teach young people through their bowling activities; acting as the team captains, league officers, youth leaders, all the things in the way that we train young people, not only to be good bowlers but to be good league officers, to be good association leaders and better than anything, to be good boys and girls and good young people.

We have many changes. Our Board of Directors have taken some very progressive steps for the future. That includes an increase in dues. Any time dues are raised there are a few people who grumble. And in my own estimation, it is a very progressive step forward and will enable the YABA now to do some things that will promote our game and better the program for the boys and girls, that we not only keep these youngsters that we have, but we will attract many others into YABA. We think it's progressive. As you read all the material as it comes forward within the next weeks, I'm sure you will agree. I solicit your cooperation, your support.

And from a personal standpoint, as I close today, I want to thank each and every one of you who have so diligently supported youth bowling over these many years as I have worked in it since 1959. I want to thank you for your friendship, your support and all the things you do. Chuck Hall is not important. He's going off the scene, but youth bowling is going to be here, and I solicit your continuing support of youth bowling. Give it your best, guys. With your help we can make it grow and we can make it go.

My closing remark to you is simply an old one that you have heard a hundred times over, keep it always in mind as you look at youth bowling and the kids we work with, that no man stands so tall as when they stoop to help a child. Keep helping them in youth bowling. Thank you very, very much.

PRESIDENT DE HAVEN: Thank you for the message, Chuck, but you certainly don't need to thank us. It's we that need to thank you. He's going to be missed but we certainly wish him God's speed.

At this time we will have a presentation by the National Bowling Council that will be presented by Roger Tessman, who is a member of the Executive Committee of the Council, and Paul Mohn, a member of NBC.

TESSMAN: This morning we are going to brief you on some very important changes you may have already heard about in store for the National Bowling Council and its activity. This new, forceful direction, which we will review in a few minutes, is in response to some alarming figures on decreasing numbers of league bowlers. Right now more than 1.4 million men, women and youth league bowlers are dropping out every year. Naturally, some of these will be replaced but certainly not enough to compensate for the loss. For all of us, that's a frightening figure. That's why we are all working together, and I emphasize together, to reverse this current trend. As you have read in the committee reports, there is a real need to promote our sport and everyone is going to have to become involved. But before we launch into the plans, let me review several programs that we can begin now to activate as we gear up to tell the bowling story, which up to now may well be one of the world's best kept secrets.

I talked about working together. NBC on the national level is able to provide a marketing plan agreed to by all the members of the bowling family. We are confident that you can assist in implementing the plan through a local bowling council. Today we have indentified these local councils, and from their reports, confirm our belief that local councils do work. NBC now has available a sample set of bylaws as well as detailed step-by-step guidelines on developing a bowling council. Outlines of successful activities undertaken by established councils are included. We urge that you contact Bowling Headquarters for your packet of information if you don't presently have a bowling council in your association area.

Several specific programs coordinated by the NBC, which are perfect for implementation at the local council level, offer obtainable goals and deliver results which means new sanctioned league bowlers. These are programs for adults, seniors, collegiates and youth groups.

We had an extremely busy year this year at NBC; visiting the president, gathering publicity for the sport in national media, coordinating promotions, all designed to heighten awareness of the sport. But next year will be even busier.

Here is Paul Mohn to introduce the marketing plan.

MOHN: When Roger began his presentation, he touched on some important but very alarming trends that we're monitoring. Let me reemphasize, membership in the ABC continues to trend downward. We must take action to combat these trends. Last year members of the bowling family, through the NBC, put their support behind an industry wide marketing plan, a plan that if worked properly, would help to reverse the decline we have all been experiencing, juniors, women and men.

This plan was developed by the NBC Marketing Committee, a committee where both members of the ABC Board and the ABC staff participated. We are a part of that plan. The plan includes programs to increase sanctioned league bowlers and to do a better job in retaining those sanctioned league bowlers we now have.

In developing the NBC plan, the first step was to develop a comprehensive plan for youth bowling, since these bowlers will be the future members of ABC and WIBC. Other parts of the plan will follow later. For example, there are plans to expand existing NBC programs such as the youth programs outlined to you by Roger Tessman.

Programs for adults are also on the drawing board. Your board, the ABC Board, is in the process of developing our part of the marketing plan, so is WIBC. It's a big commitment and it's a commitment that we feel all of us must make in order to turn bowling around for us. The bottom line is, more youth and adult sanctioned league bowlers for us, your associations and ABC.

PRESIDENT DE HAVEN: At this time I would like to call on our Assistant Executive Secretary-Treasurer, Burt Kellermann, for a presentation.

KELLERMANN: As Roger indicated earlier, we will eliminate the traditional summary of the committee reports and use the time for an Equipment Specifications presentation that we believe you will find both interesting as well as informative.

At your round tables yesterday and in the report of the Equipment Specifications Committee in your delegates book, you were exposed to the significant test activities ongoing in the ABC Equipment Specifications Center. The natural question that must now be in your minds, is where does all this testing and evaluating and resulting decisions come together. An overview clearly points to a subject you have heard your Executive Secretary mention, first, in Niagara Falls and many times since. That is the system of bowling.

We have a purposeful and coordinated effort pertaining to all items of bowling equipment that make up the system of bowling. Tying this effort together is a plan, part of which you see before you. This plan covers the major elements of our program. To provide you with an insight into our progress, I will summarize the material from the reports on each element presented to the ABC Board of Directors.

First, on the status of the lane dressing measuring system. Many of you participated yesterday in the hands-on demonstration at the round tables. You also saw the updated version of the overall plan, the location of 14 field test sites, as well as samples of the instrument specifications being developed. As you may recall, our object was to develop a system to measure the relative amount of dressing applied to a bowling lane and define a numeric value for a complying condition. Our plan shows how we intend to accomplish it.

It is important to note that the implementation data we projected last year in Reno is still valid. And as outlined in the plan, testing is broken down into two segments. There is an extensive in-house test program as well as a broad field test program. The field tests were discussed to get hands-on usage and first-hand reactions to the hardware. Also we wanted data relative to actual lane conditions for analysis. Field tests are underway with all hardware on site. We have received some recommendations for improving the mechanical design and action will be taken on them. Preliminary reports indicate the equipment is operating as planned. The success of this type of program depends on the support of many people and companies, and this program is no exception.

We appreciate the efforts of the proprietors, local association personnel and manufacturers for supplying the lane conditioning equipment at no cost and the dressing manufacturers for supplying the special dressing at wholesale costs. This support, along with the hardware operation, has created a very positive image for the ABC.

To evaluate the improved hardware, before we begin production, the test program will enter a phase two. Phase two tests also will be conducted, both in-house and in the field. The in-house portion will verify that the improved circuit and structure meets the specifications, while the field tests will evaluate the changes relative to operation and handling.

In keeping with the plan, we have prepared legislation for your consideration at this Convention. First, Amendment No. 12 would require an additive as specified by ABC in the lane dressing. And second, Amendment No. 17 would authorize the Board of Directors to approve hardware specifications for lane dressing measuring equipment and incorporate them in the equipment specifications manual. Amendment No. 17 should not be confused with the standing resolution on lane dressing procedures.

I'm sure many of you have heard about the limited dressing distance concept. Briefly stated, the basic reference is that by limiting the distance to which conditioner may be applied on the lane, one can effectively eliminate the ability of that conditioner to control the path of a ball. As our first step, ABC Equipment Specifications Committee will develop a comprehensive plan to evaluate all phases of the concept of limited distance dressing. As you may have heard, ABC has observed demonstrations conducted by BPAA where experimental lane coatings have been applied. In addition, some selected local centers are evaluating the limited dressing distance concept on presently available coatings which we are monitoring. As with any new idea, we believe that although there are many varied opinions with regard to this concept, we cannot discount any possible idea providing ABC with the ability to continue to maintain the integrity and credibility of the sport of bowling.

At Niagara Falls we initiated the study of the characteristics of the bowling ball known as the coefficient of friction because we felt it may be a physical property of the ball that influences scoreability.

In Reno we showed you a film clip of the device to measure the coefficient of friction. In the rotating drum apparatus the bowling balls rolled against the stainless steel drum designed to isolate the ball's own characteristics from other effects that may influence its action. As part of the original investigation, it was determined that the appropriate coefficient of friction was measured when the drum was coated with a lubricant. Over 114 test sequences involving 30 runs per sequence were completed in late 1984 and early 1985. The equipment, as designed and developed within the Equipment Specifications Center, does give consistent and repeatable measurements.

This chart shows a comparison between the individual values of a 30 test sequence as compared to the mean value. Notice that after the initial break-in period, less than 3 to 5% difference exists between the individual readings as compared to the mean value. Such a spread is well within the experimental accuracy of this device. Because the equipment was capable of measuring the coefficient of friction of a bowling ball, we proceeded in our test sequence to identify what, if any, differences could be found in such a characteristic. To establish a baseline, we tested six representative bowling balls which were commonly used in the 1970s.

Note that some differences exist between those older balls. A range has been established that we consider to be typical of the older bowling balls. It's shown by the colored area.

Bowling balls that are representative of those in use today were also tested. Results of these bowling balls, as manufactured, are depicted in the next two slides. The first group of seven clearly shows considerably more spread of the coefficient of friction with the bowling balls on the market today than was noted in the previous case of the older balls.

The colored area defines the range of the older balls. Another series of tests of different balls of the current variety also exhibits this broad range of coefficient of friction. From our initial study we concluded that some of today's current bowling balls exhibit measurably higher coefficient of friction than did older bowling balls.

Another question on coefficient of friction addressed, was modifications made to the bowling ball, such as by sanding. We examined six different bowling balls for their characteristics as manufactured and, then, compared them to the characteristics measured after the bowling ball had been sanded in a manner considered typical of that used by bowlers today. Note that several of the balls, in fact half of them, exhibited no increase from the manufactured condition to the after sanded condition. Others, however, reacted extremely strongly to sanding. The coefficient of friction increased dramatically as compared to the manufactured condition, almost doubling in some cases.

This study indicated that there can be a significant increase in the coefficient of friction through the actions of the bowler in sanding his bowling ball or in the actions of a manufacturer in providing a similar characteristic as part of his product.

Consider where we are today. We have developed a piece of equipment that we believe provides us with an insight into the mechanism of increased bowling ball friction as well as measurements of that level of increase. Control of this characteristic may not be easy. Enforcement is yet an undefined procedure. The following program was developed in order to bring this study to a successful conclusion. Several tasks are being undertaken to develop the equipment and techniques needed to measure the precise effect of the coefficient of friction on scoreability and to develop the type of legislation that ABC could propose and could enforce. With this program we will complete the first phase of the development of bowling ball specifications.

The final major program involved in the system of bowling relates to pin dynamics. Many of you heard of the test equipment involved in determining the physical or static properties of bowling pins at the round tables yesterday. These specifications for tenpins have seen little change in the past three decades. Yet there are some of our members who still feel present day production procedures and advanced technology have altered the dynamic behavior of pins even though static dimensions comply with allowable tolerances. Therefore, a thorough review of present specifications as they relate to dynamic performance was started. It has been concluded that a mechanical method to consistently deliver a ball into the strike pocket be developed. This was accomplished by the construction of a bowling ball ramp on a stub lane assembly in the Equipment Specifications Center at bowling headquarters.

The ramp is capable of propelling a ball consistently into the pocket at a speed of 24 feet per second and can be positioned to impact the pocket at various angles. In order to evaluate dynamic characteristics of the pins, a high speed video camera will record pin action at a speed of 200 frames per second. Filming from above the pins as well as in front of the pins will allow a two dimensional evaluation. To provide a reference to measure pin motion, a four inch grid pattern has been applied to both the kickback and pin deck.

The system will provide the means to evaluate all types of pins; solid block, wood core plastic coated and synthetic pins on a repeatable and recordable basis.

The pin dynamic study apparatus and filming technology are being finalized with testing to begin in August and remain an ongoing project. Whether or not additional pin specifications may be necessary will depend upon the results of study and we cannot speculate what they may be at this time.

These projections appear to be realistic and we are devoting resources in both staff time and money that is needed to meet the schedules for the projections and to accomplish our goals.

In Niagara Falls and again in Reno, the Executive Secretary-Treasurer referred to the fact that the ABC has established a project with an independent testing agency to evaluate our specifications and test procedures. This agency is the Battelle Laboratories of Columbus, Ohio. Their audit included the bowling equipment specifications as presented in the publication shown, as well as the specialized procedures utilized by our Equipment Specifications Center.

The first phase of that study, dealing with the bowling pin, is completed. Because of the length of their entire report, I will not discuss the specifics of the evaluation in detail, however, I'm happy to report that we were very pleased with the results of this phase of the study.

In the area of pin geometry and physical properties, our procedures and specifications were found to be excellent. There were some minor technical recommendations pertaining to clarification or wording and the development of alternate procedures. Consideration is being given at this time to their implementation.

In the area of bowling pin scoreability, the study of our test results proved statistically that it is extremely unlikely a new pin could be approved that would score significantly different than those in use today. Again, some recommendations were made which might further improve our procedures and we will also consider the feasibility of implementing those suggestions.

The second phase of the study which will deal with the lane and related products is presently underway. The final phase which will include the bowling ball is scheduled to start in the latter part of the year. We have still had no response to our standing invitation to sources outside the ABC for data or procedures that could be included in this audit.

We are encouraged by these results which attest to the fairness of the specifications and procedures in allowing the development of new technologies in the sport of bowling without a drastic alteration of the scoring characteristics of our sport.

PRESIDENT DE HAVEN: I would like to call on the chairman of the Finance and Budget Committee to bring you up to date on the financial picture of the Congress. Vice President Max Skelton.

SKELTON: Gentlemen, you and your constituents from past Convention meetings have been diligent in reminding everyone that the ABC stands for quality services through outstanding programming. You haven't stood still for lip service. The members expect a high degree of professionalism for their dues, and locally and nationally we are committed to that obligation. We can look you straight in the eye and say we have done very well with our members' dollars. We have budgeted carefully and consistently, and we have reviewed all programming and that process is ongoing.

Since our 1982 dues increase, we have made adjustments that have resulted in many savings. For example, we are dealing with outside suppliers with contracts, competitive bidding, and this has brought costs to a livable minimum. Publications have been printed in varying sizes to eliminate all possible paper waste and unnecessary costs. Our staff has been reorganized, and services restructured for efficiency and cost savings. The hiring of our Corporate Counsel has reduced outside legal fees and we hope that they will continue to diminish. The Group Executive concept is complete and each is a business within a business, with responsibility delegated to evaluate every aspect of the Congress and its spending versus value received.

These saving measures plus prudent investments have allowed ABC to operate efficiently within our dues structure. Cost sharing programs with WIBC, such as the Certified Lane Inspector Workshop and the Certification and Awards Processing Department, have saved the ABC $310,000 this season alone.

When the Congress was faced with the health insurance premium increase of more than 40%, a self-funded plan was established that saved ABC more than $60,000 the first year.

Since 1982, expansion of services has been tremendous. We have produced a variety of programming, and you have told us that you like what has been produced. Some of these programs are the Tenpin Puzzler, the Local Association Operations Manual, the League President and Secretary's Handbooks, the all spare chevron, the Local Hall of Fame certificates, the Association Director of the Year certificates, some additional field staff and evaluation of programming by outside agencies as to the authenticity and sound practices in our test facility. Frankly, we are comfortable with the feeling that ABC has done an excellent job of making membership dollars stretch.

The Membership Service area includes Tournament Sanctions, Certification, Awards Processing, Bonding, Rules, Membership Department, Awards and Education. Nonetheless, costs are increasing. You see it in your locale and you see it in the way it affects your own budget. Our projections clearly indicate that there is no more stetching the dollar. It is ready to snap if stretched further. And many of you are thinking the same thing, that an assessment of your own service program and operational costs are being stretched. Rising costs are nationwide.

To further an effective Congress that operates efficiently, your Board of Directors, through its participating planning process, established a mission statement. It reads:

"The American Bowling Congress is an organization of male tenpin bowlers. It provides quality programs and services to its membership for their participation in organized bowling. The ABC regulates bowling systems, resulting in standardization of the game, and the aim of ABC is to provide growth in tenpin bowling and to enhance its enjoyment as well as to instill a pride of membership in its members."

The Planning Committee report identifies, through the strategic planning process, ABC's priorities over the next few years. They are: Member and leadership education; physical systems of bowling; membership marketing; organizational structure, the image of the Congress and of your local associations.

President DeHaven's report stresses that our challenges include restoring integrity to scoring, reversing the membership decline, membership education and inclusion of bowling in the Olympics. It goes further to note two objectives, improving the image of bowling and communicating the reasons why being an ABC member is an outstanding value.

We have asked for your input and because we have directed programming toward what you have said our needs are, we now face a crossroad. Compared with any organization, the ABC membership card is the best value in sports. We have no plans to change that fact. What is undermining some of our functions, however, is that some bowlers are taking advantage of our services and not paying for them. That is one aspect we must correct now because it affects your budget locally and ours nationally.

While the ABC general fund income was selectively stable for 1983 and 1984, expenses increased by approximately $900,000. That was due to our response to your desire to expand existing programs plus inflationary factors.

A few examples will explain why our financial situation requires adjustment. Costs of printing ABC publications have increased $50,000. Taxes and insurance increased $100,000. Salary expenses increased approximately $150,000 with additions in field staff, Group Executive- Technical and Membership Services area. The awards program increased almost $50,000.

Our continued effort to bring stability and consistency to our lane inspection and certification through the Certified Lane Inspector Workshop program costs $70,000. In this season alone, 1984-85, the budget reflects $152,000 increase for staff, additional staff. And the new Equipment Specifications program has a budget cost of $125,000. Another $125,000 will be expended to maintain the CLIW program. The postal service rate increase affects us all. Our basic operating expense projection for postage is $50,000. And we were notified that the premium on our bonding, burglary and holdup insurance program will increase $77,000.

As a nonprofit organization we constantly search for means to control costs. The financial statements that you have received reflect how ABC has managed its finances. In the various committee reports, many expanded and new programs are outlined. We are developing exciting new programs to increase ABC services, such as the local association officers training program, the first mixed league sanctioned application which will be field tested this season, the senior program sales kit being developed to send our message to seniors throughout the country, and major strides have been made in the area of the lane dressing measuring and reading devices.

Our commitment to this type of research is ongoing. It's a long term process that gives us all hope that we will indeed maintain the integrity of our sport. You are all aware of our commitment to further the awareness and focus on the history of our sport. When the National Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum was projected and a site established in downtown St. Louis, we as delegates made a 10 year commitment to make certain that this structure would be a great source of pride. The building is open and it is magnificent. The ABC and WIBC are liable for its indemnification. That means that we are not only responsible to help retire the building debt, but we are committed for the day-to-day operating costs. WIBC, BPAA and the manufacturers worked together to finance the building. For your information, ABC's commitment this season alone will amount to $490,000.

We are also committed through past delegate action to maintain our program for young bowlers, our future members. A decrease in membership has adversely affected the YABA as well as the ABC. And the bowling family must react to YABA's financial needs. ABC has offered value added programs, Budget Car Rental, American Airlines, the no-cost travel-accident program for this year's ABC Tournament participants and many more benefits are on the horizon. The outside agencies engaged by ABC provided an objective viewpoint of bowler reaction toward ABC and the industry and have been enlightening. We have a clear understanding of the image in which members perceive us and what they expect for their local and national dues.

In order to respond to those needs, the Planning Committee has assigned projects to various ABC committees for review and implementation. The agenda for review includes tentative programs, such as a national mixed tournament, expanded educational alternative programs and alternatives for merchandising our sport.

We are examining alternatives to establish a direct line of communication to our membership. We believe that this will be an invaluable service to everyone. Funds are required to support all of the previous mentioned programs, as well as development of new programs still in the planning stages. We have prepared a series of slides that will give you a picture of ABC's present and future financial posture.

As you can see on this slide, ABC's income is relatively fixed. It changes only when our membership changes up or down or when the dues structure is adjusted. You will see a slight decrease in later years on the graph because as the reserves decline our interest income declines. Despite our successes in controlling and reducing costs, our expenses do not remain fixed. To be a vibrant, responsive organization, we must continue to add new services for our members. We cannot stand still.

Inflation is always there to erode our purchasing power. The green portion of the slide reflects a 5% inflationary factor for each year, plus inflation has a compounding effect. We suffer inflation on inflation.

The gold portion of this next one graphically represents expenses in 1982 dollars. A growing portion of our expenses as reflected in the blue relates to inflationary factors. Our dilemma is increasing expenses overshadowing fixed income. You can see on this slide, as seasons pass, our expenses rise and finally exceed our fixed income. This is shown graphically by overlaying the two previous slides. For the current season our income is slightly more than our expenses. The 1986-87 season reflects a projected deficit of almost $1 million. It also reflects the need of the Congress to maintain adequate reserves. The reserves not only produce income, but as you enter into the last years of a dues cycle the reserves are used to maintain programs at the level expected by our members.

Our top priority is to provide the best possible services to our members. We are not content to stop now. Programs are constantly being reviewed, and your ideas and suggestions at the Saturday Workshop are always welcome and appreciated. We are confident that you realize the need for a dues increase legislation at next year's Convention. We feel a responsibility to communicate this information to you one year in advance. Your responsibility is to carry this message to your local board and from there to any interested member. We ask that you return home and develop long- range planning and that your association will undertake this with its members. Brainstorm with the board and even with special outside committees on how we can improve membership services. New programs are necessary to invigorate the sport.

ABC and local associations have always worked in tandem to provide first class, high quality programs. We must continue or we are not fulfilling our membership service obligation.

PRESIDENT DE HAVEN: At this time I would ask for a notion to accept the reports and make them a part of the record and the chair recognizes Wayne Van Wey of Clark County, Ohio.

VAN WEY: Mr. President, I so move that the reports given this morning be approved and made a part of the record. Seconded by Charles Eichler, New York, N.Y.

PRESIDENT DE HAVEN: You have heard the motion, all those in favor, signify by saying aye. Those opposed say nay. By your action you have approved the reports.

At this time we will have the report of the Nominating Committee, and it will be presented by its chairman, Past President H. Wesley Bogle.

BOGLE: Gentlemen, before I present to you the names of the men nominated for office this year, it is my pleasant duty to inform you that on Wednesday, the Board of Directors appointed Burton W. Kellermann to a new three year term, commencing on May 1, as Assistant Executive Secretary-Treasurer.

Today, in addition to the officers, there are being placed in nomination for jurisdictional director five men whose names were not on the ballot last year. In each case where there was a vacancy to be filled, notices were sent to all local associations inviting them to submit names to the Nominating Committee. All potential candidates were interviewed by a two man subcommittee, a different committee in each case. These subcommittees then recorded in detail the information obtained in the interviews to the full Nominating Committee, which selected the man it felt was best suited to represent the Congress to that jurisdictional area.

The names being placed in nomination and approved this week by the Board of Directors are:

PRESIDENT DE HAVEN: Are there any nominations from the floor?

At this time I would ask Roger Tessman to come to the podium and explain the voting procedure. I'm advised by our Parliamentarian that the nominations are now closed.

TESSMAN: As delegates you were all given an identification tag. As you leave the hall for the lunch break you will be given a ballot, and I would like to give you some basic instructions on the ballot. It is provided in accordance with Article 5, Section 1 of our Constitution and it provides for the election of our officers. You may vote for the candidates who are listed on the ballot. Likewise, if there had been nominations from the floor, their names would have gone in opposition to a candidate. You also have the opportunity, should you choose, to select a write-in candidate. If, in fact, that is your desire, the name of the write-in candidate goes in directly opposite of the person who has been nominated by the committee. Once you have completed the ballot, there is a circle on it. You mark the circle. If you are making no changes on the ballot, you would mark the circle and that would complete the balloting process.

PRESIDENT DE HAVEN: Just a couple of announcements before we break for lunch. The Tournament Site Selection Committee met in Greendale several months ago and selected Jacksonville, Fla. for the 1988 ABC Tournament and Convention. The Site Selection Committee then met yesterday to consider bids for both 1989 and 1990. The Tournament and Convention for 1989 was given to Wichita, Kan. The Tournament for 1990 will be in Reno, Nev.

So your program from Tulsa on is next year, 1986, we will be in Las Vegas; 1987, Niagara Falls, N.Y.; 1988, Jacksonville; 1989, Wichita, and 1990, Reno.

I notice that quite a few of you are wearing the "Bowling Belongs In The Olympics" pin. This pin was originated by the Brunswick Corp. in their support of our quest for membership in the USOC and also our participation in the Olympics. And we were able to enact a very economical purchase of these pins and to have them in each of the delegates' kits when you received them. We hope you wear them.

Those of you who would be interested in basically a mass picture of the delegates, if, as you leave the building for lunch or want to leave the building for lunch, stop on the large steps between this convention center and the Excelsior Hotel across the street. If you will all convene out there, Rory Gillespie from BOWLING magazine will take a mass picture of the delegates.

We will now recess for lunch and reconvene at 1:30.

AFTERNOON SESSION

PRESIDENT DE HAVEN: At this time we will have an expression of appreciation, and this will be given by the chairman of the Site Inspection Committee, Jim Lusk.

LUSK: Tulsa Mayor Terry Young said at the opening of the 1985 ABC Tournament that his city would pick ABC, and the tournament bowlers are well aware of its hospitality and friendliness. He said Tulsa prides itself in those areas. Certainly, that atmosphere has been apparent to the participants in the first 35 days of the Tournament and to all of you throughout the Convention week.

Tulsa is a friendly city, and the 7,700 teams that are entered in the 82nd renewal of the Showcase of Bowling will realize and appreciate that by the time ABC vacates the Tulsa Convention Center on May 26.

This is ABC's second visit to Oklahoma, the first being to Oklahoma City in 1976, yet we're entering the fourth largest Tournament in history, indicating that ABC members like visiting beautiful cities.

The Tulsa Chamber of Commerce and Tulsa Bowling Assn., in addition to all the city officials, have done an outstanding job in preparing for the ABC Tournament and Convention. The city's foresight in constructing the beautiful addition just to the west of this arena where the Tournament is housed proves that it wanted the ABC in Tulsa.

Since it was selected as the 1985 host city, officials have worked closely with the ABC staff to make sure everything went smoothly. The local media has cooperated by informing the citizenry that Tulsa is the nation's bowling capital for 107 days.

It is impossible to give credit to every individual responsible for making this the memorable event it is. However, we must single out the Chamber of Commerce Manager Don Roland, Board Chairman William Waller, Tulsa's Public Events Director Roy Saunders and Convention Center General Manager Bob Maher. Special thanks also goes to the entire Tulsa B.A., especially to President Jack LaRue and Secretary Wes Thompson.

I am sure the bowlers who visit Tulsa during the next two months will echo my words of appreciation.

On behalf of all of them, the ABC's officers, Board of Directors and staff, I say a sincere thank you to Tulsa for everything they have done to make the 1985 ABC Tournament and Convention one of the best ever. We hope you invite us back soon.

PRESIDENT DE HAVEN: You know, in all of my many, many years of attending the ABC delegates meeting, I have always admired the chairman of the legislative session, and I am going clear back into John Canelli's days and from that time on. I have admired them for their patience and their expertise in handling this legislative session. So today, it gives me a great deal of pleasure to introduce Jack Otero, who will conduct the legislative session before this delegates meeting.

OTERO: Just to run by our rules and procedures, they are no different than recent years, but sometimes there are different delegates. The motion before the floor will be the recommendation of the Board of Directors, and all of you have that recommendation. It does appear in your packet. Therefore, there will be no motion required, no second required.

Two, on some of these pieces of business, and we do have 37 amendments to deal with, so we do want to expedite this but not take away time on these issues which require discussion. If the recommendation is for adoption and there appears to be a housekeeping or a non-controversial issue that may not be spoken to — then we will take the vote immediately.

On all motions for adoption, it requires a two-thirds vote. On all motions for rejection, it requires only a majority vote. For a motion for deferral, it requires only a majority vote. I will announce, however, before any vote is taken, whether it requires a two-thirds or a majority vote.

For the last five years, and really it is the suggestion of Past President Ray Arnold, we have alternated arguments; that is, instead of having five people speak on one side of the issue while somebody else is lined up at the microphone to speak on the other side, we have alternated.

We are going to take some of these things a little bit out of order. Proposed amendment 3 will be taken first, because this deals with the voting procedure and is to be taken effect immediately, and therefore it would be applied to the balance of this convention as to all other votes. This amendment requires only the number of the votes cast considered for determining if the two-third affirmative requirement has been met. So that's the proposed amendment, and there is a recommendation of the board for adoption of that amendment.

I understand that there will be no speaker in favor of that unless there is a speaker that opposes this amendment. That makes it much easier to determine, to take the number of delegates, eventually to find out whether or not we have the two-thirds. So it is only the two-thirds of those voting. Is there any discussion on the motion?

There being none, all in favor of the motion, signify by saying aye. Opposed, no. By your action, you have adopted proposed amendment 3.

Now, I am going to the beginning of the book, proposed amendment 1. This amendment provides that following a rerate, it be required that only winter league averages be used to determine if a bowler must use his rerated average for his league average for entry into subsequent handicapped or classified competition.

The motion before you is a motion for rejection. Is there any discussion with regard to this motion? When you do go to the microphone, please give your name and please give your association or if you are a director, where you are from.

Apprently, seeing no one wishing to discuss this motion, all in favor of the motion for rejection, and this requires only a majority vote, signify by saying aye. Opposed, no. By your action, you have rejected proposed amendment 1.

Now, the next three are going to be taken in this sequence: No. 2, which would normally follow, has been addressed by the Board of Directors, and proposed amendment 29 and proposed amendment 30 have dealt with the same problem as proposed amendment 2. So if 29 and 30 were adopted, then proposed amendment 2 would become moot.

So in dealing with this in a logical rather than a sequential order, we will deal with proposed amendment 29, which provides that we delete the requirement that a game score be credited to the starting player when a substitution has been made in a game. The recommendation of the Board of Directors is for adoption. Is there any discussion with regard to this proposed amendment, this motion?

There appearing to be none, and this will require a two-thirds vote, all in favor of adoption of proposed amendment 29, signify by saying aye. Opposed, no. By your action, you have adopted proposed amendment 29.

Proposed amendment 30 also relates to proposed amendment 2. This permits leagues which maintain averages on a frame basis to include in the individual's records the frames bowled by an individual who did not complete a game.

The motion before you is a recommendation for adoption by the Board of Directors. Is there any discussion with respect to proposed amendment 30? There appearing to be none, it will require a two-thirds vote — I'm sorry. Excuse me.

BILL MC KENNA, Springfield, Mo: I would like to see it stay just like it is, because when a man has bowled frames and you have to use his average to make his average, it is going to be hard on the secretaries to figure out if he bowls one or two or three frames.

OTERO: This is only in the option of the league. It is not required.

MC KENNA: It is the option, but I still say we should do away with it and leave it like it was.

OTERO: Is there any further discussion with regard to proposed amendment 30?

CARROLL STONEHOUSE, Grand Rapids, Mich., representing the Rules Committee: We feel that any combination of two individual scores could result in a game, series and average not true for either bowled. We also discussed the fact that team scores or the combination of scores should count for the team score only. That is the reason for us recommending this as we did.

OTERO: Is there any further discussion with respect to the motion on proposed Amendment 30? There appearing to be none, the motion before you is for adoption of proposed amendment 30, which requires a two-thirds vote.

All in favor of the motion, signify by saying aye. Opposed, no. By your action, you have adopted proposed amendment 30.

Proposed amendment 2 deals with the same subject matter as I mentioned to you before. Having adopted 29 and 30, it would still require action on No. 2, but it does deal with the same subject matter. It is to require that games bowled by more than one individual count for team score only. The motion before you is for rejection of proposed amendment 2.

Is there any discussion on proposed amendment 2? There appearing to be none, and this is a majority vote requirement and it is for rejection of proposed amendment 2.

All in favor of the motion for rejection, signify by saying aye. Opposed, no. By your action, you have rejected proposed amendment 2.

Proposed amendment 4 has been withdrawn by the proposer.

Proposed amendment 5 would increase the number of directors at large from six to 10 and the proposer is the ABC Nominating Committee. The recommendation by the board is for adoption. The motion before you is for the adoption of proposed amendment 5.

Is there any discussion on proposed amendment 5? There appearing to be none, and this will require a two-thirds vote, and the motion is for adoption.

All in favor of the motion for adoption, signify by saying aye. Opposed, no. By your action, you have adopted proposed amendment 5.

Proposed amendment 6 rearranges Article 4, Section 1 to more accurately describe the composition of the Board of Directors. This was proposed by the ABC Nominating Committee, and the recommendation of the Board of Directors is for adoption. I believe in your book you show an amendment to add life members, and that should be in the supplemental material dealing with this particular amendment. The motion before you is for the adoption of the amendment that appears as amended by the Board of Directors.

Is there any discussion with regard to proposed amendment 6, as amended? This again, requires a two-thirds vote.

All in favor of proposed amendment 6, signify by saying aye. Opposed, no. By your action, you have adopted proposed amendment 6.

Proposed amendment 7, rearranges Article 5, Section 5 to more accurately describe the position and function of the ABC President. This was proposed by the ABC Nominating Committee, and the recommendation of the Board of Directors is for adoption. So the motion before you is for adoption.

Is there any discussion with regard to proposed amendment 7? There appearing to be none, the motion before you will require a two-thirds vote, and it is for adoption.

All in favor of the motion for adoption, signify by saying aye. Opposed, No. By your action, you have adopted proposed amendment 7.

Proposed amendment 8 rearranges Article 5, Section 7 to more accurately describe the position and function of the ABC Executive Secretary-Treasurer. The proposer is the ABC Nominating Committee. The recommendation of the Board of Directors is for adoption. So the matter before you is a motion for adoption.

Is there any discussion on proposed amendment 8? There appearing to be none, the motion before you is for adoption, and it takes a two-thirds vote.

All in favor, signify by saying aye. Opposed, no. By your action, you have adopted proposed amendment 8.

Proposed amendment 9 would establish that representation at the annual meeting be on membership rather than playing strength basis. That was proposed by the ABC Nominating Committee. The recommendation of the Board of Directors is for adoption. Is there any discussion on proposed amendment 9?

JOHN FAUTH, Assistant Secretary of the Aurora (Ill.) B.A.: I wish to state Aurora's opposition to this particular amendment. I think the present system is the best. It is based on the number of people actually bowling, the number of people that are bowling in actual leagues within your association. We have gone to the other delegates. We have several members of our association that bowl in more than one league. I move for rejection.

OTERO: There is a motion on the floor for adoption. We will have to deal with that motion first. Is it your position that you would oppose that motion for adoption?

FAUTH: Yes, sir.

LOWELL ROTHSCHILD, Tucson, Ariz.: I also am a member of the Nominating Committee, and I would like to suggest that we are finally coming to reality. Back here two years ago when we effected the cycle of bringing us into the individual membership like our sister organization, we established the ability to know how many members we had.

It seems illogical to the Nominating Committee that because you bowl in an association where some people bowl more than once, you would count membership for delegation to change the constitution. Essentially what you have done is give a cumulative vote to people who vote more than once. It is fairly well-established principle now in these United States, that you get one vote per person, and all this does is take out that logic.

I would like to give you some statistics that the Nominating Committee asked the staff to put together and they have done it. Based on the top 200 associations — and I'm not clear, I didn't look and see if Aurora was one of those — there would ordinarily be under playing strength 1,418 delegates, and under regular member strength 1,180. If everybody showed up and sent the exact delegates, there would be a reduction of 238 or about 15%. We believe that that is minimal, that it will not affect the direction of the representation, and I urge the delegates to support the Nominating Committee's amendment.

LEN SPANJERSBERG, Union County, N.J.: We also will be losing some delegates, and I would like to make an amendment to the amendment that the 2,000 figure be reduced to 1,500.

OTERO: Excuse me. Occasionally I have to ask other people's opinions on this kind of an issue, and that is whether an amendment is appropriate or not appropriate. We are in unanimous agreement that it is not appropriate, because it is not within the scope. We are merely changing the representation to one vote, one man from playing strength, and therefore changing the figure from 2,000 to 1,500 would be another amendment that would have to be proposed individually. So it is not within the scope of this amendment, and therefore the chair would rule that amendment out of order.

ERNIE PETERSEN, Secretary, Eastern Long Island B.A.: We had a meeting and discussed this pretty thoroughly, and we come here to represent our bowlers in the Long Island Area. If we lose delegates, we go back with less strength to pass the word for the ABC; therefore, as a body, we are against this.

RAY ARNOLD, Jackson, Mich.: I also am a member of the Nominating Committee. If you wanted more members to come here to the Convention, couldn't you ask for your alternates to also come? I mean, you have your delegates and you have alternates, so if you are depending on your delegates only, you could also have your alternates come and you would thus increase your delegation to the Convention.

ROGER PILCHER, Nation's Capital Area B.A.: I think it is rather illogical that we have passed all of the previous rules to change from the team concept to the individual concept, and now that we are to the final one to be fighting it and discussing why we should not do it. I think this is the final paragraph, that we should do it and get on with the closing of this chapter.

RAY WALTERS, Rochester (N.Y.) B.A.: Most of the delegates brought their alternates with them, I believe was the gentleman's statement down here below. Am I right?

OTERO: We don't statistically have the answer to that. I would observe, though, we have less than 1,200 delegates present. There could have been 1,400.

ROTHSCHILD: Mr. Chairman, just a short response. I am sure, historically, a good portion of the delegates know that I spent the better part of two decades supporting their rights to speak and have their representation. I am a little disappointed that a member would suggest that they want to emulate the Congress of the United States, who will not legislate themselves out of their positions. That is essentially what you are hearing here is that a bunch of the delegates say, "We get to come, and we don't care if it has anything to do with real representation. We want to be here."

There is no logic to playing strength any longer. It is a historical vestige of something that happened 30, 40 years ago, and you really ought to get on with the Nation's Capital's point of view, even though I suggest that the Congress is not responsible. I would expect this group, in a sports organization, to be logical and responsive.

OTERO: Is there any further discussion? There appearing to be none, to repeat what you have before you, is you have a motion for adoption of proposed amendment 9. It takes a two-thirds vote.

All in favor, signify by saying aye. Opposed, no. Darold Dobs and his crew will count you, as I am going to request the people saying aye to stand and remain standing until I tell you to sit down. This is for adoption of proposed amendment 9.

Now I would ask all of those to stand who are voting against the adoption to proposed amendment 9.

You can be seated now. I think I know how to do two-thirds, but I think all of you should know what the count was and then you can agree with the chair's ruling.

There were 759 for adoption. There were 369 against adoption. So if you just multiply 369 times two, you come to 738, according to my arithmetic. By reason of your action, you have adopted proposed amendment 9.

Proposed amendment 10 would delete restriction on an ABC board member from donating medals and/or trophies to sanctioned leagues and tournaments. The proposer is the ABC Rules Committee. The recommendation of the Board of Directors is for adoption.

Is there any discussion with regard to proposed amendment 10? There appearing to be done, the motion is for adoption, and it requires a two-thirds vote.

All in favor, signify by saying aye. Opposed, no. By your action, you have adopted proposed amendment 10.

Proposed amendment 11 would eliminate the $100,000 maximum and provide greater investment flexibility of funds contained in the Reserve General Fund account. The proposer is the ABC Finance and Budget Committee. The recommendation of the Board of Directors is for adoption.

Is there any discussion with respect to proposed amendment 11? There appearing to be none, the motion is for adoption, and it requires a two-thirds vote.

All in favor, signify by saying aye. Opposed, no. By your action, you have adopted proposed amendment 11.

Proposed amendment 12 would require that lane dressing meet ABC specifications. The proposer is the ABC Equipment Specifications Committee. The recommendation of the Board of Directors is for adoption.

Is there any discussion on the motion for adoption? There appearing to be none, the motion is for adoption and requires a two-thirds vote.

All in favor of the motion for adoption, signify by saying aye. Opposed, no. By your action, you have adopted proposed amendment 12.

Proposed amendment 13 would increase from $3 to $5 the maximum fee which may be charged by local associations for certification inspections. The ABC fee for a renewal certificate as well as the fee for the first four lanes being initially certified would be increased from $3 to $5. The proposer is George F. Schumacher of the Akron (Ohio) B.A. The recommendation of the Board of Directors is for rejection.

Is there any discussion with respect to that motion on proposed amendment 13? There appearing to be none, the motion is for rejection. This is only a majority vote.

All in favor of the rejection of propopsed amendment 13, signify by saying aye. Opposed, no. By your action, you have rejected proposed amendment 13.

Proposed amendment 14 would change the date for submission of amendments by an ABC member from November 1 to October 1 and by an ABC committee from December 1 to November 1. The proposer is the ABC Nominating Committee. The recommendation of the Board of Directors is for adoption.

Is there any discussion with regard to this motion regarding proposed amendment 14? There appearing to be none, again, this will require a two-thirds vote.

All in favor of the motion for adoption, signify by saying aye. Those opposed, no. By your action, you have adopted proposed amendment 14.

Proposed amendment 15 requires the local association secretary to advise in writing all league secretaries of the awards available through the association. It requires the league secretary to report all scores which would be eligible for ABC, state and local association awards. It permits the secretary to either post the league schedule or provide a copy of this schedule to each team captain.

In this instance, there was an amendment — and this wasn't proposed by the ABC Rules Commitee — and in your copy of the recommendations of the Board of Directors, you will see that there was an amendment which would insert on line 3, following the word average, "a certain number of games." So that is what you are considering. The recommendation of the Board of Directors is adoption of proposed amendment 15 as amended and so indicated in the materials given to you.

Is there any discussion with regard to proposed amendment 15? There appearing to be no discussion, this will require a two-thirds vote, and the recommendation is for adoption.

All in favor, signify by saying aye. Opposed, no. By your action, you have adopted proposed amendment 15.

PRESIDENT DE HAVEN: Gentlemen, it is 2:15. I just want to remind you that the ballot boxes will close at 2:30. If you still have your ballots, I would suggest you go out and get them deposited.

OTERO: Proposed amendment 16 would require the association treasurer to present an accurate report of the association's financial transactions. The proposer is William S. Herald of the Sarasota-Manatee County (Fla.) B.A. The recommendation of the Board of Directors is for rejection. The motion before you is for rejection.

Is there any discussion with regard to proposed amendment 16? There appearing to be none, this is a majority vote and is a motion to reject proposed amendment 16.

All in favor of rejection, signify by saying aye. Opposed, no. By your action, you have rejected proposed amendment 16.

Proposed amendment 17 would allow the Board of Directors the authority to approve or reject proposals dealing with lane dressing and lane dressing measuring devices. The proposer is the ABC Equipment Specifications Committee. The recommendation of the Board of Directors is for adoption.

Is there any discussion with regard to the motion on proposed amendment 17? There appearing to be none, this will require a two-thirds vote.

All in favor of the adoption of proposed amendment 17, signify by saying aye. Opposed, no. By your action, you have adopted proposed amendment 17.

Proposed amendment 18 would permit the use of various colored pins in sanctioned competition. The proposer is Rex M. Golobic of Colma, Calif. The recommendation of the Board of Directors is for rejection.

Any discussion regarding proposed amendment 18? There appearing to be none, this is a majority vote.

All in favor of the motion for rejection, signify by saying aye. Opposed, no. By your action, you have rejected proposed amendment 18.

Proposed amendment 19 would require the actual pin fall from a second delivery in a frame be recorded when a player fails to bowl down all 10 pins in a frame. The proposer is shown as Charley Eichler of the New York B.A. But I do understand that Mr. Eichler would like to make a motion to defer for one year for further study, which would take precedence over a recommendation or a motion for rejection, and therefore I would recognize him at this point.

PERRY BROWN, New York (N.Y.) B.A.: Mr. Chairman, that is incorrect. Mr. Eichler does not wish to make a motion to defer.

OTERO: I'm sorry. This information was given to me. I apologize for the fact that I did not get the correct information. Thank you very much. You would wish to speak for the motion for rejection?

BROWN: We wish to speak in opposition to the motion for rejection. We fail to see how this proposal could be harmful. All it would do would make it easier to discover errors in scoring and thereby reduce the possibility of the wrong team winning a game because of a mistake.

The ABC Board of Directors and its reason for rejection as stated in this proposal would penalize the bowler because of the failure on the part of the scorekeeper. The current Rule No. 6 has that very fault. For instance, if a bowler would knock down seven pins on his first ball and two on his second, and the scorer marked down seven and a dash, as indicated in the current rule, and marks a total count of seven for the frame instead of nine, that error could not be found and corrected upon checking the score at the end of a close game. That bowler has been penalized and his team could lose the game because of an undiscoverable error which could have been found and corrected if the actual pin count of the second ball had been recorded.

In addition, under the current rule, the scorer might record a seven and a dash and incorrectly add a nine count when the bowler only knocks down seven pins. If the score is checked at the end of the game, that error cannot be corrected, because under the current rule that dash is proper for an error regardless of the number of pins knocked down by the second ball.

The ABC Board also states that the proposal would be difficult to enforce. We do not see this as an issue. This is a procedural scoring rule and not a playing or eligibility rule, and there is no penalty attached to the rule. It would simply make it easier to identify if there is correct scoring first and thereby make sure that the proper team gets the proper winnings.

In addition to the game scoring example, which appears on Page 51 of the ABC Rules Book, it shows two frames in which actual count is recorded for both balls when the bowler fails to convert his spare. This proposal is adopted for the current Rule 6 to be consistent with that scoring example. The ABC equipment specifications already require that all automatic scoring devices record actual pin fall on each ball. Why then should we not require the same of our human scorekeepers?

In closing, it is our opinion that Rule 6, as it currently exists, allows errors in scoring to go undetected and thereby could have a negative effect on the integrity of sanctioned competition. We therefore urge the delegates to vote in opposition to the motion to reject.

OTERO: In our policy of alternating speakers, is there someone that wishes to speak in support of the motion to reject?

JERRY BELTZ, ABC Director, Anchorage, Alaska, member of the Rules Committee: We still feel that the proposal would penalize a bowler. And, you couldn't enforce it. So basically we still stand that we oppose this rule.

OTERO: Are you speaking in opposition of the motion for rejection?

LARRY CHMURA, Chicago Metropolitan B.A.: We had a discussion about this yesterday in our meeting, and we concur with the New York B.A. It has happened to me, going into an establishment that had had a problem. Now, of course, the only time a problem comes up is in a close game. Nobody, of course, looks at it when you are losing by 100 pins. But you walk in there and you look at the sheet. The only thing you can go by is what is on the sheet. If they mark seven and a dash, that is a seven pin count and that is all, not seven and two.

OTERO: I think this may be the motion for deferral.

PILCHER: We had considered on voting or requesting a motion to table, Jack. However, in the last two days, we have conducted a survey, and out of 20 associations that we talked to, none were in agreement that it should be rejected. They each stated that in their associations, the pins were indicated for each ball that was rolled. Between the New York B.A. and ourselves, we have over 100,000 bowlers and that each of those two associations indicated that the pins are reflected for each ball that is rolled. Also, when we come to the ABC, the automatic scoring devices indicate the number of pins for each ball that is rolled.

So we fail to now find grounds to defer. We feel that at this point we should move to approve the amendment that has been proposed. We feel that is what is actually happening in the bowling world and does fit the sample, and we should have the rules fit what is occurring and allow us to be able to audit scores. If they are already doing it and there is no problem in enforcing the rule and it is contrary to the rule, then we find it difficult to understand why it will cause a problem to have the rule fit what is actually happening in the real world of bowling.

LLOYD STONER, Lansing (Mich.) B.A. President: We have had discussion upon this, and we feel that we concur with New York's feelings entirely and also that a lot of people when they are learning to score go by example, and the example that is shown on page 51 is totally erroneous as to the way the rule reads. We feel that this motion should be accepted as New York proposed it.

BEN PALUMBO: I am the Secretary-Treasurer of the Buffalo (N.Y.) B.A. where we do have these problems from time to time. I recognize the gentleman from the Nation's Capital. He says that there are maybe 20 associations that do not have this problem. I, for one, speak on behalf of an association where this problem does come up, and I am sure there are many other associations where this particular problem of checking the score comes up. We are talking about a rule, gentlemen. We can't say because it is not a problem in most cases that we don't need the rule or we need a different rule. If it is a problem in any case at all, the rule has to be there to follow.

What do we do when the man gets seven on his first ball, gets two on the next ball, the scorekeeper is sleeping and doesn't mark the two and puts in nine? You can't tell me it never happens. It has got to happen in even one of those 20 associations. You've got to get a seven. That man gets a seven. It is written in stone, according to this rule, the way I understand it, and he didn't put it down. And I, for one, have been bowling for 30 years, and I don't keep score. I'm guilty, okay? So somebody else has to keep my score.

If I am not careful enough to see if they put that other two in there and somebody audits the score at the end of the game, I have got seven. Like it or lump it, that rule says I've got seven. I don't get those two pins, even though everbody says that I had the extra two pins.

I want to summarize by saying we can't make a decision on this rule based on what the majority situation is happening in associations. We have to look at the isolated incidences, and we have to care for them and they are not really that isolated. I would guess that everybody has that problem from time to time.

OTERO: Are you going to be speaking for rejection or approval?

JOHN SIMANELLA, President of the Greater Cleveland B.A.: In speaking for the group, we favor this. I think the classic example would be when you issue instructions, you put it down in writing, you put it down plainly enough that the lowest form of mentality will be able to read it, interpret it, not that we bowlers are stupid or anything else. But if you explain it in black and white, no one can make a mistake.

ROBERT WISSMULLER, Detroit: I am speaking in favor of the action by the board to reject this proposal. My concern, and I am sure it is going to be a concern of many delegates here, is the enforcement of this particular rule. Number one, if they have a scorekeeper who fails to mark the second ball, such as has been mentioned here, can we penalize the bowler through no fault of his and then we would be penalizing both.

So my question is: What would be the penalty? The rule does not state the penalty. So I think the amendment as it is stated is inconclusive, that it does not cover a penalty and thereby assesses the bowler a penalty.

BROWN: As I stated before, there is no penalty attached to it. It is really a method of making it easier to audit the scores at the end of the game. What Mr. Palumbo said is true, there are isolated instances where a bowler could be penalized. However, that also exists under the current rule, as I previously explained.

Where we have a situation where we can make some improvements by adopting a proposal, while not making it any worse than it curently is, I think we ought to go with the proposal.

With regard to a scorekeeper failing to fill in a ball, well, that is no cause to correct an error. We would not have conclusive evidence that the frame count for that frame was incorrect. If the scorekeeper would have put in seven for the first ball and nothing for the second ball and failed in the nine count, under current procedures we would maintain that that would have to remain a nine count, because there was no conclusive evidence to the contrary, and that would remain the same under the proposal.

Further, we do have rules which state that questionable errors in scoring may be decided by the league's board of directors. That would still hold true if the proposal were adopted. So I fail to see the problem along those lines.

PRESIDENT DE HAVEN: I am going to announce that the ballot boxes are now closed.

OTERO: Now, since we have two speakers, do either of you wish to speak in favor of the motion for rejection?

BERNIE HAW, Palm Beach County (Fla.) B.A.: If we are going to penalize the bowler because of a scorekeeper's error, you are not penalizing the bowler when the responsibility lies to the bowler to make sure his score is being kept accurately, whether he is a scorekeeper or not. This is in tournament and league play. It is his responsibility to make sure that score that is put by his name is an accurate score at all times. So if it is not done, he is not being penalized because he is not doing his part or his responsibilities.

DON GATES, Syracuse (N.Y.) B.A.: Based on what Mr. Palumbo has said, I would like to get a clarification on the existing rule where it says that a dash is required for an error. Would it then follow that if you put seven and had a two instead of a dash, that that person could get seven all the way, because you didn't use the dash as required in the rule, you used two instead?

OTERO: We're going to the very top for this answer. We are going to Roger Tessman, our Executive Secretary-Treasurer.

TESSMAN: And I am just going to answer Don's question. I think that we all have to keep in mind, gentlemen, that scoring is a procedural thing, and in the illustration you have cited, Don, where you got seven on the first ball and if a two were inserted for the second ball, the error symbol would not be used and the credited pin fall would be nine. I believe that is the issue on which this turns, because the error symbol seemingly is the issue that is causing the problem. Maybe when the system was originally designed, there should never have been an error system. You would record in the first box seven, and if you accredited no pins on the second ball, you would put a zero. If you got one, you would put the one; if you got two, you would put two; and if you got a spare, you would put a spare. This is where the whole thing turns on.

OTERO: Is there any further discussion? All right. The motion that you have before you — and remember, you will get another time to vote — is for rejection. That takes a majority vote.

All in favor of the motion for rejection, signify by saying aye. Opposed, no. By your action, you have defeated the motion for rejection. So what you have before you is the actual proposed amendment itself, and that would take a two-thirds vote for approval.

Your vote now is for the adoption of proposed amendment 19. It takes a two-thirds vote.

All in favor, signify by saying aye. Opposed no. By your action, you have adopted proposed amendment 19.

Proposed amendment 20 was to add a YABA Coach to those mentioned in Rule 30a with respect to penalties for misuse of funds. In your pamphlet which shows the action by the Board of Directors, you will note that that language has been changed to substitute instead of "shall be subject to indefinite suspension" to "be liable for." The recommendation of the Board of Directors is for adoption of proposed amendment 20 as amended, and you have that amendment in your information.

Is there any discussion with regard to the motion for adoption of proposed amendment 20? There appearing to be none, the motion is for adoption. It will require a two-thirds vote.

All in favor of adoption of proposed amendment 20, signify by saying aye. Opposed, no. By your action, you have adopted proposed amendment 20.

Proposed amendment 21 would provide reference that the appeal provision of Rule 32 apply in cases involving dismissal from a league under Rule 114e. This is proposed by the ABC Rules Committee. The recommendation of the Board of Directors is for adoption.

Is there any discussion with regard to that motion for adoption of proposed amendment 21? There appearing to be none, the motion is for adoption. It requires a two-thirds vote.

All in favor of adoption signify by saying aye. Opposed, no. By your action, you have adopted proposed amendment 21.

Proposed amendment 22 would limit to one the number of awards a bowler may receive in a lifetime for each of the following scores: 300, 299, 298 game or 800 series. The proposer is Joe A. Antonacci of the Diablo (Calif.) B.A. The recommendation by the Board of Directors is for rejection.

Is there any discussion with regard to this proposed amendment, the motion for rejection? There appearing to be none, this is a majority vote for rejection.

All in favor of the motion for rejection, signify by saying aye. Opposed, no. By your action, you have rejected proposed amendment 22.

Proposed amendment 23 would in the five man, three man and two man leagues, increase the minimum team game and series scores which require an inspection. The proposer is Charles W. Rogerson of the Ocean County (N.J.) B.A. The recommendation by the Board of Directors is for rejection.

Is there any discussion with regard to proposed amendment 23 and the motion for rejection? There appearing to be none, the motion before you is for rejection. A majority vote is required.

All in favor of the motion for rejection, signify by saying aye. Opposed, no. By your action, you have rejected proposed amendment 23.

Proposed amendment 24 would require the league president to appoint, as a minimum, a Prize Committee and an Audit Committee. In your book, you will note that there was an amendment, the amendment having to do with punctuation, so that what you would be voting on is as this particular amendment appears as amended. The recommendation of the Board of Directors is for adoption.

Is there any discussion with regard to proposed amendment 24 and the motion for adoption? There appearing to be none, the motion before you is for adoption and would require a two-thirds vote.

All in favor of the adoption of proposed amendment 24, signify by saying aye. Opposed, no. By your action, you have adopted proposed amendment 24.

Proposed amendment 25, which would require the league secretary to retain all league records for at least one year after the league schedule has terminated, I am advised, and I hope this time correctly, that the proposer Charley Eichler wishes to withdraw that proposed amendment. And I guess I am right this time. Proposed amendment 25 is withdrawn.

Proposed amendment 26 would reduce from 30 to 21 the number of days to distribute prize money unless the league establishes specific prize distribution provisions. The proposer is the ABC Rules Committee. The recommendation of the Board of Directors is for adoption.

Is there any discussion on proposed amendment 26 and the motion for adoption? There appearing to be none, the motion before you is for adoption of proposed amendment 26. It takes a two-thirds vote.

All in favor, signify by saying aye. Opposed, no. By your action, you have adopted proposed amendment 26.

Proposed amendment 27 would establish a 15 day limit for team captains to distribute the prize money to team members. This was proposed by the ABC Rules Committee, and the recommendation of the Board of Directors is for adoption.

Is there any discussion on proposed amendment 27 and the motion for adoption? There appearing to be none, the matter before you is adoption of proposed amendment 27. It takes a two-thirds vote.

All in favor, signify by saying aye. Opposed, no. By your action, you have adopted proposed amendment 27.

Proposed amendment 28 would specify that unless the league adopts otherwise, the absentee score shall be the absent bowler's average less 10 pins. The proposer is Charley Eichler, but he wishes to repeat that he speaks on behalf of the committee, not individually. The recommendation of the Board of Directors is for adoption.

Do you have any discussion with regard to proposed amendment 28 or the motion for adoption? There appearing to be none, the matter before you is the motion for adoption. It takes a two-thirds vote.

All in favor, signify by saying aye. Opposed, no. By your action, you have adopted proposed amendment 28.

You will recall, we have already acted upon amendments 29 and 30, so we are now on proposed amendment 31. This would change the number of games required to be bowled in order to break a tie from at least three to the number of games normally bowled in a league match unless the league has adopted special playoff rules. The proposer was Charley Eichler, speaking for the New York B.A. The recommendation of the Board of Directors is deferral for one year for further study.

Is there any discussion on proposed amendment 31 and the motion for deferral? There being none, the motion before you is for deferral. A majority vote is called for.

All in favor of the motion for deferral, signify by saying aye. Opposed, no. By your action, you have deferred proposed amendment 31.

Proposed amendment 32 would eliminate requirement that the team captain consent to release a bowler to transfer from one team to another. That was proposed by the ABC Rules Committee, and the recommendation of the Board of Directors is for adoption.

Is there any discussion with regard to proposed amendment 32 and the recommendation for adoption?

JOHN HALFERTY, San Diego B.A.: I am sure most of us should know ABC Rule 104, duties of a team captain is the team representative responsible for conduct and attendance, responsible for eligibility of the team and its members. He also has authority to remove a member if able to show just cause. The captain is responsible for collection of all fees and he shall divide all prize money as agreed.

Now we are going to say a bowler can change teams without the consent of his team captain. Let's take a hypothetical case. You have a last place team that has one good bowler on it. You have five weeks left in the season, and this one bowler says he is going to change over to the first place team. Okay, it's hypothetical, but think about it.

In response to this from members of the ABC Board of Directors, I was informed that two-thirds of the team captains must approve the transfer and it is doubtful if they would approve. Gentlemen, all of us here as delegates are not here to approve rules that leave any doubt in anybody's mind. If there is a doubt, then we shouldn't approve it. That last place team may lose a decision, and the team captain has no hope of finding another bowler to finish out that season, yet he already had a bowler that was committed to him. Who pays for that man who is short on that team? It doesn't give the team captain much choice. We have caucused on this, and our delegates urge a no vote on this amendment.

MIKE WILLIAMS, ABC Rules Committee: We would like to say that if we change this rule, it would make it consistent with Rule 103, page 67 of the authority of the Board of Directors. It would also help the possibility of a man not being able to bowl because of personality conflicts. It would eliminate hard feelings between a team member and a team captain if the member decided to change teams. It would eliminate the possibility of a captain becoming a dictator to team members.

The league board of directors would then have the authority to make an unbiased decision based on facts in the best interests of the league and the players. This is also part of the Mixed League Rule Study Committee, and it would be consistent with their findings.

OTERO: Is there any further discussion?

DONALD BELL, Syracuse: Our caucus would disagree for the reason that the backbone of ABC is the team captain and should be the authority.

OTERO: Is there any further discussion with regard to proposed amendment 32? There appearing to be none, the matter before you is the motion for adoption of proposed amendment 32. It does require a two-thirds vote.

All in favor of the motion, signify by saying aye. Opposed, no. Mr. Dobs, first I'll try and do this by eye count. Would all those in favor of adoption of proposed amendment 32, please stand? You may be seated. Would all those opposed to proposed amendment 32 please stand?

Gentlemen, I think we are going to have to count. Would you please be seated? I cannot determine by an eye observation.

Would everybody in favor for adoption plase stand and remain standing until you are asked to be seated?

We do have the results, and the motion for adoption failed. So by your action, proposed amendment 32 was not adopted.

UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKERS: What was the count?

OTERO: Oh, I'm sorry. It was 628 for and 513 against, and it required a two-thirds vote to pass; therefore, it failed.

Proposed amendment 33 requires each bowler to complete an individual membership application and pay the sanction fee unless paid through another league prior to the completon of his first series. The proposer was Gordon Sellers of the Jacksonville-Lejeune (N.C.) B.A. The recommendation of your Board of Directors was for deferral for one year. So the motion before you is for deferral.

Is there any discussion on proposed amendment 33 and the motion for deferral? There appearing to be none, the motion before you is for deferral and requires only a majority vote.

All in favor, signify by saying aye. Opposed, no. By your action, you have deferred proposed amendment 33.

Proposed amendment 34 would permit the manager of an annual state tournament to adjust an entrant's average for that tournament upward prior to bowling and requires the tournament manager to notify the entrant's local association of the adjustment. The proposer is the ABC Rules Committee. The recommendation of the Board of Directors is for adoption.

Is there any discussion with regard to proposed amendment 34 and the motion for adoption? There appearing to be none, the motion before you is for adoption. It takes a two-thirds vote.

All in favor of the motion for adoption, signify by saying aye. Opposed, no. By your action, you have adopted proposed amendment 34.

Proposed amendment 35 would delete the limits on the amount of prize fee which may be charged participants in state and local association annual tournaments. The proposer is Stan Commons of the Oregon State B.A. The recommendation by the Board of Directors is for adoption.

Is there any discussion on proposed amendment 35 and the motion for adoption? There appearing to be none, the motion is for adoption. It requires a two-thirds vote.

All in favor, signify by saying aye. Opposed, no. By your action, you have adopted proposed amendment 35.

Proposed amendment 36 would permit the tournament manager to allow tournament games to be rebowled when scores are lost in an automatic scoring device. The proposer is Claude A. Neely of the Southern Nevada B.A. The recommendation of your Board of Directors is for deferral.

Is there any discussion on proposed amendment 36 and the motion for deferral? There appearing to be none, then the motion before you is for deferral. It requires a majority vote.

All in favor of the motion for deferral, signify by saying aye. Opposed, no. By your action, proposed amendment 36 has been deferred.

Proposed amendment 37 would provide that the actual dollar amount expended for merchandise prizes given as part of a tournament prize list be used to determine the prize ratios contained in Rule 342. The proposer is the ABC Rules Committee. The recommendation of the Board of Directors is for adoption.

Is there any discussion on proposed amendment 37 for the motion for adoption? There appearing to be none, the motion is for adoption. It requires a two-thirds vote.

All in favor of the motion, signify by saying aye. Opposed, no. By your action, you have adopted proposed amendment 37.

Now to the resolutions, and I will read them in the order that you have them in your books. The first resolution is from the ABC Rules Committee.

Whereas, in excess of 60% of the leagues sanctioned by the ABC and WIBC are mixed leagues, and

Whereas, bowlers have expressed concern over the procedures used in sanctioning and administering mixed leagues, and

Whereas, ABC and WIBC are continuing to strive to provide improved services to their members, and

Whereas, the ABC Mixed League Study Commitee continues to work in conjunction with WIBC and will test various methods of sanctioning and administering mixed leagues during the 1985-86 season,

Now, therefore be it resolved by the delegates in convention in Tulsa on March 15, 1985, that ABC permit modifications of variances in existing ABC rules for those leagues participating in the test program.

This requires a majority vote for its adoption. Is there any discussion with respect to that resolution?

There appearing to be none, all in favor, signify by saying aye. Opposed, No. By your action, you have adopted the resolution.

The resolution of the Equipment Specifications Committee:

Whereas, the delegates at the 1977-78 Convention authorized the ABC Board of Directors to amend any provisions currently in the rule book with regard to the lane dressing procedures and to permit any such revisions in the dressing procedure to be put in force immediately, and

Whereas, research and testing involving conditioning of lanes is continuing,

Be it resolved, by the delegates in annual session on March 15, 1985, that if during the 1985-86 season tests demonstrate that revision in the lane dressing procedures are in order, the ABC Board of directors shall be authorized to amend the rules governing such lane dressing procedures. The rules amended by the board shall be put in force immediately,

Be it further resolved, that any such revision approved by the board under the interim procedure shall be submitted to the delegates in the 1986 Convention for ratification by this body.

Is there any discussion with respect to this resolution? There appearing to be none, again, this requires a majority vote on the resolution.

All in favor of the adoption of the resolution just read, signify by saying aye. Opposed, no. The resolution is adopted.

This is another resolution by the Equipment Specifications Committee as follows:

Whereas, the ABC staffs a department primarily charged with developing specifications for bowling equipment and related materials and equipment, and

Whereas, such department is required to test materials and equipment on an ongoing basis to verify that such materials and equipment are within ABC specifications, and

Whereas, the activities of such department are of equal value to both ABC and WIBC, and

Whereas, the cost and management of such department for the most part, has been borne solely by ABC, and

Whereas, it would appear appropriate that such cost and management should be shared equally by ABC and WIBC,

Be it resolved, the representative of ABC be authorized to meet and confer with WIBC in order to negotiate an agreement with WIBC to share the cost of management of the said department.

Is there any discussion with regard to this resolution? There appearing to be none, the resolution requires a majority vote.

All in favor of the adoption of the resolution just read, signify by saying aye. Opposed, no. By your action, you have adopted the resolution.

This is another resolution by the ABC Equipment Specifications Committee. The resolution:

Whereas, the Equipment Specifications Commitee and test facility at Bowling Headquarters has implemented an extensive study on the coefficient of friction characteristics of bowling balls, including composition of materials and the practice of altering the surface of bowling balls, and

Whereas, preliminary findings have demonstrated that instrumentation developed to measure these properties does produce repeatable and significant data,

Whereas, if such continuing tests determine that scoring is appreciably affected,

Now, therefore be it resolved, by the delegates in annual session on March 15, 1985, that during the 1985-86 season the ABC Board of Directors shall be authorized to amend any specifications currently in effect or adopt new specifications related to the surface characteristics of bowling balls,

Be it further resolved, that any such revisions or additions approved by the Board of Directors under this interim procedure shall be submitted to the delegates at the 1986 Convention for ratification by this body.

Is there any discussion with regard to this resolution?

DON GATES: This particular resolution could have some very important problems for local associations if rules are made that could cause problems, such as the coefficient of friction, which could possibly eliminate certain bowling balls. And maybe the delegates will remember some problems that were caused by the 72 hardness rule when the Shur D ball, in effect, was disallowed, and a lot of people had to give up bowling balls that cost them a lot of money.

This particular resolution while I am sure the committee would have the best interest of the game at heart, it might be advisable that the possible implementation of such a rule should have the opportunity for local feedback before it is implemented, because it could have some problems with local associations. If it is passed and implemented without any local feedback, local associations might be in for a lot of grief.

OTERO: Is there any further discussion with regard to this resolution? There appearing to be no further discussion on the resolution, the matter before you is for adoption of the resolution. It does require a majority vote only.

All those in favor of the resolution, signify by saying aye. Opposed, no. By your action, you have adopted the resolution.

The final matter we have is a resolution affecting the amendment of the Articles of Incorporation, and I will read it to you.

To the members of the Board of Directors and Delegates of the American Bowling Congress in annual session:

The following amendment to the Articles of Incorporation is being submitted to the delegates in accordance with Article 10, Section 4 of the ABC constitution for the following reasons:

ABC is incorporated in the State of Illinois. Illinois law provides that, in the absense of a bylaw fixing the number of directors, the number shall be the same as that stated in the Articles of Incorporation. Our Articles of Incorporation, as last amended on May 13, 1931, presently provide:

"III. The management of the aforesaid corporation shall be vested in an Executive Board of 45 Directors who are to be elected at the time and in the manner provided by the laws of said American Bowling Congress."

Since we have had more than 45 directors for a long time, it is submitted that the Articles of incorporation of ABC be amended by the addition of the provision on the reverse side of this page.

That is the ABC Proposed Amendment to Articles of Incorporation.

Pursuant to Article 10, Section 4 of the American Bowling Congress Constitution, the undersigned persons, each of whom is an authorized delegate to the 1985 regular meeting of the ABC, hereby submit, and file with the ABC Executive Secretary-Treasurer the following proposed amendment to the ABC Articles of Incorporation:

Resolved, that Article III of the Articles of Incorporation of the American Bowling Congress be amended by changing Article III to read in its entirety as follows:

"III. The management of the corporation shall be vested in a board of not less than three directors who shall be elected or appointed at the times and in the manner provided by the Constitution of the Corporation."

Resolved, further, that the above proposed amendment be submitted to the delegates of this corporation for their approval at the forthcoming meeting of such delegates.

It is signed by Charles Woods, Howard Kracht and Wesley E. Thompson.

The matter before you is the adoption of the resolution which would change the Articles of Incorporation. Is there any discussion with regard to these changes of the Corporation Articles?

There appearing to be none, all in favor, signify by saying aye. Opposed, no. By your action, the Articles of Incorporation will be changed accordingly.

Prior to ending the legislative session, I wish to give thanks again this year to Dr. Ed Leone, who is the parliamentarian. We spent quite a bit of time before the Convention to see whether or not we will have any problems, and I have never worked with a parliamentarian that I have more respect for, and I am certainly pleased that he is with us.

I want to thank all the delegates. You make this job terribly easy, and I appreciate all your cooperation and consideration to the chair and to each other.

PRESIDENT DE HAVEN: Jack, on behalf of myself and the Board of Directors and all the delegates assembled, I want to thank you very much for all of the time and effort that you have put in to prepare to handle this legislative session and for the very good way that you handled it and the way that you make all of the delegates feel that they are a part of the Convention.

At this time I would like to call on the chairman of the Finance and Budget Committee, Max Skelton, for two resolutions.

SKELTON: To the ABC Board of Directors and Delegates: The delegates in annual session at the 1984 ABC Convention adopted a resolution that upon recommendation of the Finance and Budget Commitee and approval of the ABC Board of Directors, an amount not to exceed $250,000 may be made available to the National Bowling Council during the 1985-86 fiscal year providing WIBC, BPAA and the two major manufacturers make equal contributions during that fiscal year.

Since the WIBC, BPAA and the two major manufacturers have agreed to make equal contributions during the fiscal year of 1985-86, it is the recommendation of the Finance and Budget Committee that the board authorize the executive Secretary-Treasurer to make $250,000 available to the National Bowling Council in the 1985-86 year.

Respectfully submitted, the Finance and Budget Committee. Mr. President, I so move.

JERRY LUDWIG, St. Louis: I just bowled in my 52nd ABC last night, and this is my 48th delegate convention representing the City of St. Louis. I would like to second that motion, as that fee finally has done a terrific lot for getting new bowlers, and that's why I am pleased to second that motion.

PRESIDENT DE HAVEN: You have heard the motion. All those in favor, signify by saying aye. Those opposed, signify by saying nay. By your action, you have adopted the resolution.

SKELTON: To the delegates in annual session:

Whereas, the delegates in annual session at the 1984 ABC Convention authorized an amount not to exceed $250,000 to be made available to the National Bowling Council for the 1985-86 fiscal year upon approval of the Board of Directors, and

Whereas, the ABC, WIBC, BPAA, AMF and Brunswick have each committed an equal amount for that season and annually to the National Bowling Council Promotion fund, and

Whereas, this promotion fund has greatly enhanced the sport of bowling with the general public, and

Whereas, noticeable progress has been made in the game, and

Whereas, because of the necessity of long range planning which often requires the allocation of funds more than one year in advance,

Now, therefore, be it resolved by the delegates in annual session at the 1985 ABC Convention that upon recommendation of the Finance and Budget Committee and approval by the ABC Board of Directors, an amount not to exceed $250,000 may be made available to the Council during the 1986-87 fiscal year, providing WIBC, BPAA and the two major manufacturers made equal contributions during that fiscal year.

Respectfully submitted, the Finance and Budget Committee, and I so move, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT DE HAVEN: Is there a second to the resolution? Ted Jaskie, Brown Deer, Wis.

You have heard the motion. All those in favor, signify by saying aye. Those opposed, say nay. By your action, you have approved the motion.

It is my pleasure now to announce the results of the election. We had 1,271 delegates registered, that's delegates and directors and officers. There were 1,194 votes cast, 9 were invalid and there were 23 write-ins. So the slate as presented by the Nominating Committee is elected.

Is there any unfinished business? Is there anyone with any new business? I would like to announce that the President's Dinner Dance will be held on the reverse side of the screen tonight. The social hour begins at 7 p.m. with dinner at 8 p.m.

Tomorrow morning, the workshop will begin at 9 a.m. and run until noon. It will be held in this same area in which you are at the present time. We are going to tease you a little bit and tell you about a very exciting program that we are going to introduce to you tomorrow, and we certainly would urge that all of you who can to attend the Workshop.

PRESIDENT DE HAVEN: I am certain if your score was higher and it was approved, it will receive that recognition.

We would like for all of the Vice Presidents, including the newly elected Vice President, Ben Palumbo, to assemble down in front of the podium immediately after adjournment.

Gentlemen, I have been your President for some 10½ months, and while the President I have been away from my local association most of those 10½ months, and I would just like to publicly thank the Dayton B.A. for all the support and help that they have given me during that past year.

At this time, I would like to recognize Ray Arnold.

ARNOLD: Mr. President, I move that all of the acts of the American Bowling Congress, its officers, agents, directors and servants in the furtherance of business since the last annual meeting of the ABC be approved and ratified.

PRESIDENT DE HAVEN: Is there a second to the motion? Gene Kline, Midland, Mich.

By your action, you have recognized the deeds of the Board of Directors during the past year.

You have heard the motion. All those in favor, signify by saying aye. Those opposed, say nay.

By your action, you have approved the motion, and by your actions, you have recognized the deeds of the Board of Directors during the past year, and with your concurrence, I will declare the 1985 Convention of the American Bowling Congress adjourned.

(Convention Adjourned).

FINANCIAL REPORT 1984-85

To the Board of Directors of American Bowling Congress:

We have examined the balance sheets of AMERICAN BOWLING CONGRESS (an Illinois corporation without capital stock and not-for-profit) as of July 31, 1985 and 1984, and the statements of income and expenses and changes in fund balance and changes in financial position for the years then ended. Our examinations were made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and, accordingly, included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances. The fiscal 1985 summarized financial data for Bowlers' Building Corporation ("BBC") contained in Note 2(d) are based on the financial statements of BBC which were examined by other auditors. Their report has been furnished to us and our opinion, insofar as it relates to the 1985 data in Note 2(d), is based solely on the report of the other auditors.

In our opinion, based on our examination and, for fiscal 1985, the report of other auditors, the financial statements referred to above present fairly the financial position of American Bowling Congress as of July 31, 1985 and 1984, and the results of its operations and the changes in its financial position for the years then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a consistent basis.

Our examination was made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The supplementary schedules (Exhibits I and II) are presented for purposes of additional analysis and are not a required part of the basic financial statements. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in our examination of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. Corporate Organization

The American Bowling Congress (ABC) is organized to adopt and enforce uniform laws, rules, qualifications, conditions and methods of playing the game of American Tenpins, to govern bowlers, teams, leagues and tournaments in its membership, to increase an interest in the bowling game and to exercise care and supervision over all affiliated bowling organizations, associations and establishments in the territorial limits of the United States and such other of the same as may be accepted, and to encourage the creation and development of events for amateurs and fostering programs to increase bowling skills among the amateurs.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

(a) Method of accounting —
The books of account of ABC are maintained on the accrual basis, except for certain membership dues. Certain expense amounts for 1984 have been reclassified to conform with the 1985 presentation.

(b) Property and equipment —
The cost of property and equipment acquired is depreciated using the straight-line method of depreciation. Tournament equipment is depreciated over an eight year life and office furniture and equipment over five to 10 years.

(c) Membership dues recognition —
Membership dues are recognized when remitted, the majority of which are received during the first eight months of the fiscal year.

(d) Investment in Bowlers' Building Corporation —
ABC's investment in Bowlers' Building Corporation (BBC) is accounted for using the equity method. BBC holds title to the land and building utilized by ABC as its national headquarters. Summarized financial information for BBC for fiscal 1985 and 1984 is shown below:

	As of July 31, 1985	1984
Cash	$ 899	$ 4,896
Receivables	20,000	86,023

	For the Year Ended July 31, 1985	1984
Operating expenses	$ 588,466	$ 686,399

(e) Magazine revenue and advertising —
Magazine revenue and advertising includes an allocation of membership dues and certification fees, respectively, of $223,682 and $16,544 in 1985, and $235,226 and $16,980 in 1984. This revenue relates to magazine subscriptions issued to each ABC league and certified bowling establishment and is based on one-half of the full subscription price.

(f) Fund balance —
The fund balance is composed of two separate funds, the operating and the tournament, detailed below:

	Operating	Tournament	Total
Balance, July 31, 1983	$6,831,763	$ 94,634	$6,926,397
Net income	977,254	333,551	1,310,805
Balance, July 31, 1984	7,809,017	428,185	8,237,202
Net income	422,898	117,204	540,102
Balance, July 31 1985	$8,231,915	$545,389	$8,777,304

The Finance and Budget committee of ABC designates portions of the operating fund for specific purposes. At July 31, 1985, the operating fund consists of the following:

Designated funds —
National Bowling Hall of Fame Indemnification	$1,000,000
Lane dressing measuring development	500,000
Education and promotion	150,000
International competition	150,000
	1,800,000
Fund balance not designated	6,977,304
	$8,777,304

(g) Investments —
Investments are stated at cost which approximates market. Summarized investment data is shown below:

	As of July 31, 1985	1984
Operating Fund	$4,864,548	$4,555,695
Tournament Reservations deposits	950,789	723,829
Restricted for Tournament equipment replacement and other Tournament activities	640,000	609,091
Accrued Interest Receivable	268,848	339,709
	$6,724,185	$6,228,324

Reservation money is collected from teams for the next year's National Tournament. Amounts received and any interest earned are both deferred as the funds are to be used exclusively for next year's tournament.

3. Income Tax Status

The Internal Revenue Service has issued a determination letter dated June 4, 1985, granting ABC an exemption from Federal income taxes under IRS Code Section 501(c)(3). ABC is also exempt from State of Wisconsin and State of Illinois income taxes.

4. Pension Plan

ABC employees are covered under the "ABC Retirement Plan." ABC's policy is to fund pension costs accrued. The total pension expense was $202,252 and $187,548 of which $30,198 and $21,960 was charged to the Young American Bowling Alliance Inc. in fiscal 1985 and 1984, respectively. A summary of selected plan information as of Oct. 1, 1984, the date of the latest actuarial valuation, is set forth below:

Present value of accumulated plan benefits:
Vested	$3,040,642
Nonvested	171,451
Total	$3,212,093
Net assets available for benefits	$4,538,386
Actuarial cost method	Frozen Entry Age
Investment return assumed	8%

Under the provisions of Statements of Financial Accounting Standards Nos. 35 and 36, the actuarial present value of accumulated plan benefits reflects employee salaries earned to date and does not consider the impact of future salary increases from inflation or otherwise. Plan assets exceed the above-described actuarially computed present value of accumulated plan benefits primarily because ABC's funding policy, in accordance with the recommendations of ABC's actuary and commonly recognized funding techniques, considers such future salary increases.

5. National Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum Inc.

In 1982, the Bowling Redevelopment Corp., a fully owned subsidiary of National Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum Inc. (NBHF&M), entered into a construction loan agreement with Centerre Bank of St. Louis, making available a $2.5 million line of credit. During 1984, the line was increased to $3 million. These funds were used to construct the National Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum, which became operational in 1984. The ABC and WIBC have each agreed to guarantee the continuation of NBHF&M operations and any borrowings under the line of credit. As of July 31, 1985, a total of $2,100,000 has been borrowed by NBHF&M under the line.

The notes receivable from the NBHF&M are interest-free and have a due date of March 7, 1986, unless extended by ABC. Management's intent is to not call for payment at the due date of the notes, unless NBHF&M has the financial ability to repay. Formal extension of the notes is planned. Since eventual collection is not anticipated at this time, the notes were fully reserved for at July 31, 1985.

The fiscal 1986 budget of NBHF&M indicates that an additional loan by ABC of approximately $384,000 will probably be required to service the NBHF&M debt and finance its operations.

6. Note Receivable from Young American Bowling Alliance Inc.

The note receivable from the Young American Bowling Alliance Inc. is interest-free and had a due date of Aug. 1, 1985, which was subsequently extended to Aug. 1, 1986. It is management's intent to not call for payment on the note, and formal committee action extending payment terms is planned. Since eventual collection of the note is not anticipated at this time, the note has been fully reserved.

7. Line of Credit

ABC has a bank line of credit arrangement in the amount of $500,000. There are no compensating balance arrangements. There were no borrowings under this line at July 31, 1985, or during the year then ended.
